Gifts to Party.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The Republican National Committee's campaign to elect Senator Warren G. Harding President will cost $3,442,892.32.
Fred W. Upham, national treasurer of the party, notified the Senate committee appointed to investigate campaign expenditures in a report filed with the committee here today.

Of this sum, $3,042,892.32 had been spent up to the close of business Sunday, Oct. 2, and Upham estimated the expenditures in the closing weeks of the campaign at $400,- 000 additional. The report shows that $201,388.98 was spent between Oct. 15, when a report was filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives in Washington, and Oct.
24, the date of today's report.

The total estimated cost of the campaign—$3,442,892.32—is considerably in excess of the Republican budget of $2,078,037.20, presented to the Senate committee at a hearing
here last August, but Upham explained that the disbursements covered the period from June 14, while the budget included only expenditures from July 1. About $200,000
was spent between June 14 and July 1, Upham's office estimated, leaving the estimated disbursements from July 1 to Nov. 2 approximately $3,- 242,000, about $162,000 in excess of the estimated budget.

Contributions Since June 14.
Contributions received since June 14 total $2,914,706.34, or $128,186.24
less than the amount expended, Upham's report shows. Of the amount collected, $1,793,556.54 was devoted directly to the national campaign under the direction of the National Committee. The remaining $1,121,- 149.80 was returned to the states in which it was raised, in accordance with an agreement whereby the National Committee solicited all funds for both state and national campaign purposes.

Contributions Exceeding $1000.
Since Upham presented his last report to the Senate Committee here on Aug. 30, in which he showed 14 contributions exceeding the $1000 limit laid down by Chairman Will H. Hays, there have been 16 more such contributions from individuals and two from clubs. Today's report shows the 18 donations total $52,- 470.50, and include: Harding-Cox
League Club, Tulsa, Ok., $10,000; Hamilton Club, Chicago, $6120.60; Jas. B.
Smith, San Francisco, $5000; S. G.
Kennedy, Tulsa, Ok., $5000; William Sacks, Tulsa, Ok., $2500; Percy E.
Magee, Tulsa, Ok., $2500; Thomas
Vach, St. Louis, Mo., $2500; George
M. Reynolds, Chicago, $2000; E. E.
Pantzer, Sheboygan, Wis., $2000;
David H. Morris, New York City,
$1000; Duncan Phillips, Washington, D. C., $2000; William T. Curry, Pittsburg, Pa., $2000; Ledyard Cogwell
Jr., Albany County, N. Y., $2000;
Howard and Medger, Aberdeen, S.
D., $1500; John C. Gilliland, Tulsa, Ok., $1500; A. A. Augustus, Cleveland, O., $1500; Alfred Decker, Chicago, $1250; R. S. Lewis, Fargo, S.
D., $1100.

In several instances members of the same family have given contributions of $1000 each. Mr. and Mrs.
James E. Davidson, Bay City, Mich.;
Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Crocker,
San Francisco, and four other members of the Crocker family; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hodge, Detroit, and four members of the Spreckels family,
of San Francisco, are in this class.

Candidates $1000 Each.
Senator Warren G. Harding and
Gov. Calvin Coolidge, his running mate, each gave $1000 each, as did Upham, the Republican national treasurer; John T. Adams, vice chairman of the National Committee; A. T.
Hert of Louisville, committeeman
from Kentucky; Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland, former Ambassador to France, and Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, brother of former President Taft. There are several hundred $1000 contributions.

GIRL 'CALLS' CHICAGO
MAYOR FOR SAYING
ST. LOUIS IS ASLEEP

Maude E. Evans Interrupts
Thompson's Speech and Points Out City's Achievements.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 28.—Mayor Thompson was interrupted several times in his noonday speech in the Cort Theater today, once by a handsome young woman from St. Louis, who protested against his statement that the Missouri city has been asleep for years, and again by a man who declared "Woodrow Wilson is the world's greatest man and the Democrats won the war."
The young woman's declaration caused much amusement and came so suddenly that Mayor Thompson was confused, but the man's statement angered "Big Bill" and threatened for a few minutes to cause trouble, as there were many cries of "Throw him out."
"You need a guardian," angrily
shouted the Mayor at the intruder.
The Mayor was talking about the bonanza of the city, and the young woman protested against his statement that the Missouri city has been asleep for years. He said:
"That dear old city, St. Louis, which has been asleep for years has
the smallest bonded indebtedness.
Chicago is protesting against his figures. "Big Bill's" words were scarcely out of his mouth when an attractively gownned young woman, wearing a red hat, sprang to her feet and exclaimed: I object to that statement. St. Louis is not asleep.
I live there and I know."
The Mayor was taken off his feet.
"Well," he said finally, "St. Louis is four times as old as Chicago and Chicago is five times as large as St.
Louis."
Then he apologized to the young woman, who later gave her name as Miss Maude E. Evans of 1919 Union avenue, who is temporarily living in Chicago at the Y. W. C. A., 318
North Ashland avenue.

STRIKE OF BRITISH MINERS IS SETTLED; WORKERS TO VOTE

Ballot on Approval of the Terms of the Settlement
Will Be Taken by Colliery Employees.

TEMPORARY MEASURE,
LEADER EXPLAINS

Government Bill Providing for Contingencies in Event of Walkout by Railway Men Rushed Through.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The strike of coal miners throughout England
and Wales was settled this afternoon,
but the settlement is contingent on a ballot of the miners.

Members of the British Cabinet met early this morning with representatives of miners to resume negotiations for a settlement of the miners' strike. The call for the session of the Cabinet was a result of the sudden termination of yesterday's conference, at which it was confidently expected an agreement with the miners would be reached.
Frank Hodgson, a member of the miners' executive body, announced:
"We have got terms from the Government which the executive is submitting to a ballot of the men for their judgment. The executive is recommending their adoption as a temporary measure until a national wages board is established."

The Government issued a statement this morning, stating, additionally, that the ballot of the men would be taken immediately.
The terms which the executive body of the miners is recommending to the men provide for an advance of two shillings (about 50 cents) per shift for persons 18 years of age, with a corresponding advance for younger miners. The miners pledge themselves to co-operate to the full extent to obtain an increased output.

Terms of Settlement.
The terms provide that the increased wages will remain operative until a permanent wages board is established, which will be operative by the end of March. The additional cost of the miners' claims will come out of the excess revenues obtained from the export of coal. The output for two September is the average struck, which will influence the rise or fall of a sliding scale which is to operate to the extent of a 6 pence (about 12 cents) reduction in wages
if the output does not come up to the September figures, or a rise of 6 pence if the output is bigger.

One 6-pence increase will be calculated for every complete £288,000 (normally $1,440,000) value of excess in revenue over the September figures. The wages will be automatically adjusted Jan. 2, again on Jan.
31, and thereafter every four weeks on the basis of the results of the four weeks following the previous test period.

The Government's emergency bill,
which provides for all contingencies
in the event the miners' strike should involve the railway and transport workers, was rushed through all its remaining stages yesterday, and passed the third reading, which is final, last night. The vote was 238 to 58.

FIRST SNOW OF SEASON FALLS, BUT MELTS QUICKLY

Weather Bureau Says There Is Overflow of Cold Air From West.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

The first snow of the season fell here this afternoon. The snow fell for only a few minutes at the most,
and downtown for only about a minute, beginning at 3:15 p. m., and melted quickly.
The temperature was 40 degrees.
Weather Forecaster Hayes gave the following explanation: "There is a narrow patch of cloudiness extending along the Mississippi River from St.
Louis to Davenport, Ia. and there is evidently an overflow of cold air from the west or northwest, where the temperature is at the freezing point, causing a condensation in the moisture of our clouds, or snow. It won't last long."

Last night's cloudiness prevented
the expected frost, but Hayes predicted the sky would clear tonight and frost would ensue.

Snake, 5½ FEET LONG, WITH 11 RATTLES, SENT TO ZOO

The Zoo today received a velvet-tailed rattlesnake, 5½ feet long, with 11 rattles, from Tupelo, Miss., where it was obtained by J. H. Boldt of 5123 Delmar boulevard, traveling auditor for a wholesale dry goods firm. Boldt, in a letter to the Zoological Board, said he saw the snake boxed up, and was told that it was to be sent to the Memphis Zoo, but obtained permission to send it here instead.

FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE REPUDIATES CAMPAIGN REPORT

Statement It Would Accept New Association of Nations Idea if Harding Is Elected Is "Absolutely Groundless."

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—The Foreign Office today took cognizance of reports circulated in the United States as to alleged plans of the French Government after the American election and issued the following official statement:
"Certain American publications in the last few days have printed reports according to which the French Government's intention was to recall its Ambassador in the event of and as soon as a Republican President was elected. The new envoy, it was said, would be the new Ambassador in which the great republics would play predominant parts. Such information is absolutely groundless. Ambassador Jusserand leaves on Nov. 13 to resume the duties of his post at Washington."

The reports to which the French Foreign Office issues the foregoing official denial were not circulated by the Associated Press, but were contained in a dispatch circulated through other channels.

LAMONT, REPUBLICAN, WILL VOTE FOR COX

Publisher Announces in New York Evening Post Developments Resolved Doubts.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Thomas
W. Lamont, principal owner of the Evening Post, intends to vote for Gov. Cox. He announced so in a letter to his newspaper yesterday. A lifelong Republican, Lamont says
he is not voting for Cox because he is not a Republican. "I am voting for Cox," he wrote, "because I believe in the League of Nations and because I believe in the League of Nations."

"I may now say," wrote Lamont,
"that the development of the campaign has resolved my doubts. I intend to vote for Cox and Roosevelt.
My chief reason is, of course, that Cox is for the League of Nations and Roosevelt is against it. The league is admittedly not perfect. But it is the most practicable instrument yet offered for the prevention of future wars."

"Mr. Root, Mr. Taft, Mr. Wickersham, and other members of the Republican party, for whose general judgments I have profound respect, say that Harding is really for the league. They may be right. They may be wrong.
I have no doubt. I have been lenient with this man because he pleaded that he had a sick wife and I considered him a poor person. If he has enough money to bear the expense of an appeal, I will raise the fine to $2000."

Winklemann, then, through his attorney, pleaded for clemency, on the ground that his wife is so seriously ill that she requires his constant attention. This statement was disputed by Assistant Attorney-General Higgins, who informed the Court that he had made an investigation and had learned that Mrs. Winklemann had been ill, but that she had not been kept to her bed for more than a month.

UNION CONDEMNS CAMPAIGN OF RUBY THE WAITRESS FOR SMALL

Litchfield Girl Lewis Kidded Has Been on Harmony Tour for Months.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—You will remember Ruby Lynn, Ruby of Litchfield, Ill., who was kidded to fame
by James Hamilton Lewis, on Oct. 13.
Doubtless you recall that she shortly thereafter deserted the Senator and signed up for a tour with the Harmony Republican campaign,
wandering her way about the Illinois countryside, a drawing card for the country cousins who were there brought to hear the wisdom that emanated from Mr. Small's lips.

And now Ruby, alas, has been unqualifiedly condemned by the residents of Chicago Local 454.
They took action yesterday: "We hereby condemn the action of one Ruby Lynn, a waitress of Litchfield,
Ill., for having joined the Harmony Republicans and for having brought the profession into public notice in a manner not befitting a lady."
Such is fame.

CHESS EXPERT ON WAY TO U. S.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—After a sojourn of three months in this country, during which time he gave a number of convincing exhibitions of his extraordinary skill, Samuel Breschewski, the 9-year-old Polish expert, is on his way to the United States, having sailed yesterday for New York on board the steamship Olympic of the White Star Line.

Accompanying the prodigy were his parents and manager. While in England he met with quite as much success as on the continent, and of 54 games played by him in three exhibitions he lost only one, winning 43 and drawing 10.

Neighbors said the occupant of the house was a man of retiring habits unknown in the neighborhood,
who had lived there two months.
The fire chief reported the discovery of the moonshine to the Chief of Police and Federal authorities.

RYAN DENOUNCES CARTOON AGAIN AND SENDS NEW CHECK

Asserts Hays Makes "Lame Apology" for Republican Drawing "Involving Blasphemy and Sacrilege."

SAYS G. O. P. STILL EMPLOYS CARTOONIST

Expresses His Opinion of Good Faith of Hays by Sending Additional $15,- 000 to the Democrats.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—George White, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, made public today a letter from Allan A. Ryan, in connection with the statement issued last night by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, in which Hays dis-claimed responsibility for dissemination of a cartoon by Albert T. Reid, inscribed "Prof. Wilson's League of Nations—The Immaculate Conception."

With the Ryan letter, White made
the following statement:
"This is not a subject for debate between chairman of contending political parties. It involves the public attitude toward a sacrilegious attack upon the common deencies that encompass all religious beliefs."

Letter of Allan A. Ryan.

Mr. Hays' letter follows:
"I observe that Will H. Hays,
chairman of the Republican National Committee, has attempted a lame apology for the cartoon which involved blasphemy and sacrilege in the interest of the Republican ticket.
"His apology does not, however, recite the true chronology or all the facts."

"As I wrote you on October 23,
this caricature of the Christian religion formed a prominent feature of Harvey's Weekly last week. This journal is a purchased organ of the Republican National Committee. As I wrote you on October 25, Reid, the cartoonist who drew it, was and still is the official cartoonist of the Republican National Committee."

"I have since learned that the committee not only sent out this cartoon in its free press service, but that it was printed in the October 9 issue of the National Republican, also a subsidized organ of the Republican National Committee. The Postoffice Department reports show that this organ is owned by Mr. Hays, Mr.
Weeks, Mr. Hiles, Mr. Adams, Mr.
McKinley and others, now actively engaged in managing the Republican campaign."

"The cartoon of approval."

"Thus, this shameful cartoon ran a full gamut of official Republican approval, ending at last with the endorsement of him, who Senator Harding declared to be one of America's great minds; who claims that Senator Harding was nominated in his room and through his astute planning; who is a frequent and welcome guest in Senator Harding's house, and who will continue to be his confidant and adviser if he is elected President."

"I refer to George Harvey, as recently as Tuesday evening, he confidential dinner companion of Mr.
Hays himself, on which occasion
they presumably discussed how to escape the consequences of approving sacrilege as political argument recommended by the Republican
use of this cartoon in official organs,
and Republican newspapers, they now seek to repudiate it because they have found that the public conscience is aroused against it. That is the whole story."

NEW STREET CARS TO BE PUT IN SERVICE IN FEW DAYS

Sixty Cars, Now Being Built, Will Be Completed by Jan. 1, Manager
Perkins Says.

There is good news for straphan-gers in an announcement today by Manager Perkins of the United Railways that the first of the new cars
recommended by the Public Service Commission would be placed in service in a few days and that 60
will have been completed on or about Jan. 1, 1921. These 60 cars, Manager Perkins said, would reduce the early morning and evening crowding by 15,000, as each will have a capacity of about 150 persons and will make four trips in the peak load hours.

Fifty of the cars are being built at the United Railways shops and others by the American Car Co., which will have 10 completed by Jan. 1. The St. Louis Car Co., which has a contract for 50, will be delayed with the order on account of the fire which recently destroyed
a large part of that plant.

"That groundswell," Cox wired, "is due to your splendid battle for right, justice and our cause. Republican campaign methods are improving the Democratic situation hourly. I ask and will appreciate your continued energetic assistance and diligent watchfulness at the polls."

THOUSANDS MARCH IN MACSWINEY'S FUNERAL CORTEGE IN LONDON

CRUSH AT REQUIEM MASS IN CATHEDRAL

Inscription on Coffin Says
He Was Murdered—Three Cars of Policemen in the Funeral Train.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A pontifical requiem mass was celebrated this morning in St. George's Cathedral over the body of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, Terence MacSwiney, who died in Brixton Prison Monday after a hunger strike of more than 73 days. Church dignitaries, the Lord Mayor of Dublin, the Deputy Lord Mayor of Cork and deputations representing the British Parliamentary Labor party and various Irish political and civic organizations attended.

Thousands of persons thronged
every available space in the large cathedral, scores standing on chairs
in the aisles, straining for a glimpse of the casket where the casket reposed on a catafalque with four ornate "wearing the uniform of the Irish republican army standing motionless as a guard of honor."

The casket was surmounted by wreaths, and the hat which the Lord Mayor formerly wore as commandant of the Cork brigade of the Volunteer army. The brassplate of the coffin bore an inscription in Gaelic reading: "Murdered by the foreigners in Brixton Prison, London, Oct.
25, the fourth year of the republic.
Aged 40 years. God have mercy on his soul."

Just as the services were beginning the four men who, with their comrades, had been guarding the body throughout the night, were released by a quartet, wearing long coats, which they took off as they stepped to their places, exposing the uniform of the Irish republic army.
The Chancel rails and a large part of the adjacent floor were strewn with elaborate floral tributes, and of them inscribed: "A soldier sleeps nearer than a King to the pattern of Christ."

The Right Rev. Peter E. Amigo, archbishop of the Diocese of Southwest, in which the cathedral is situated, occupied the throne, presiding over the obsequies. The mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. William T. Cotter, bishop auxiliary of the Diocese of Portsmouth, assisted by the most Rev. Anselm Kennerly, archbishop of Simla, Archbishop Daniel J. Mannix of Melbourne, Australia, one of the prelates who attended, sat at the side of Bishop Amigo.

There was rapt silence during
the elevation of the host,

HAYS APOLOGIZES FOR CIRCULATION OF RED CARTOON

Republican Chairman Says It Was Recalled as Soon as Publicity Director Heard of It.

"AS OFFENSIVE" TO HIM AS TO ANYONE

Assails Democrats for "Making Political Capital Out of It—Outraging Sensibilities of Thousands."

By Leased Wire from the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, apologized last night for the circulation and publication of the cartoon entitled "Prof. Wilson's League of Nations, the Immaculate Conception," first denounced by Allan A. Ryan, when he sent $25,000 to the Democratic National Committee to help defeat Republicans responsible for the "blasphemy."

Hays admitted the cartoon was sent out by the Albert T. Reid syndicate, which supplies editorial cartoons to newspapers for the publicity department of the Republican National Committee, but asserted that when the drawing came to the attention of Scott C. Bone, Republican director of publicity, telegrams were sent to newspapers requesting it be suppressed. This was early in October.

No attempt is made by Hays to explain why, after this act, the cartoon, with the line, "Atchison (Kan.) Globe," as revealed by the New York World yesterday, was printed on Oct. 9 in the National Republican, recognized organ of the Republican party, and on Oct. 23 in Harvey's Weekly, edited by Col. George Harvey, who sat in the early morning conference at Chicago, at which it was decided to eliminate Harding for the presidency.

Will Hays' Statement.
Hays' statement follows:
"The simple facts about the publication of the cartoon labeled, 'Having Difficulty in Hanging the Masterpiece,' are as follows:

"The cartoon was sent to a number of newspapers early in October by the Albert T. Reid Cartoon Syndicate, which furnishes cartoons to newspapers for the publicity department of the Republican National Committee. It was drawn by Mr. Reid and was his own idea. As soon as this cartoon came to the attention of the director of the publicity department, Scott C. Bone, telegrams were immediately sent to the newspapers receiving it, requesting that it should not be used. I never saw it until two days ago in the New York World.

"I deeply regret that the cartoon, which in reality is as offensive to me as it can possibly be to anyone else, was ever produced or used, but I do not know how I can do more than to say frankly and to tell just how it happened. This I have done.

"The Democratic organization is now striving in every way to make political capital out of this matter. And the Democratic papers are republishing the cartoon broadcast for that purpose. They are doing this deliberately and with full knowledge. In the first instance it was used inadvertently and without the slightest approval or knowledge on the part of myself or any member of the Republican National Committee.

"It is not the Republican National Committee, but Democratic influence which is exploiting the offensive cartoon and knowingly outraging the sensibilities of thousands of devout men and women in the vain hope of achieving a political purpose.

"To thus try to make political capital out of this matter is not worthy of honest manhood or the Democratic party. I have not the slightest hesitancy in letting the public judge between us.

"The statement by Hays was made after he had conferred with virtually all the important national leaders of the party on the question of the most advisable course to pursue in handling what has been described as a 'lickish situation.' No attempt was made by Hays' advisers to minimize the untoward effect the publication of the cartoon had upon the Republican presidential campaign.

At first Hays refused to discuss the cartoon with reporters, several times flying into a rage at the mere mention of it.

Privately, Hays has admitted that circulation and publication of the cartoon constitutes the "worst blunder" of the campaign from a Republican viewpoint.

Clergymen Denounce Cartoon.
Denunciation of the Republican campaign managers for permitting the cartoon to be circulated and published grew in volume yesterday. Among the most noted quoted today in condemnation of it are the Very Rev. Dr. Howard Robbins, dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Episcopal; the Very Rev. Dr. C. J. Meagher, head of the Dominican order in the United States; the Rev. John J. Wynne, editor of the Catholic Encyclopedia, who said it was "one of the most emulative Catholic clerical men in the country, and Father John S. Dooley, pastor of the Church of Corpus Christi, the best known clerical leader.

in the cause of Irish freedom. Its effect upon the Irish laymen is best expressed by Harry Boland, secretary to Eamon de Valera, "President of the Irish republic." He said:

"It is blasphemous, sacrilegious, stupid, inexcusable taste and an affront to all Christianity. That it will hurt the Republican campaign is beyond dispute. It is a concealing how they could have done so utterly uncalled for a thing."

REQUIEM MASS FOR MACSWINEY IN LONDON CATHEDRAL

with black crepe, was held by a party of men dressed in civilian garb near the door of the Cathedral throughout the ceremony.

Irish Leaders Here.
J. B. Thomas, Arthur Henderson, John E. Clancy and William C. Adamson, representing the Labor party at the services. They were seated in the front pews. The Mayors of Fulham and several other English towns also were present, as were 21 members of the corporation of Cork, several members of the Dublin corporation, Count Plunkett, T. P. O'Connor, Jeremiah MacVeagh, Joseph Devlin, P. J. Maloney, J. J. O'Kelly, representing the Gaelic League of Ireland, and P. J. Kelly, president of the Irish Self-Determination League of Great Britain.

The funeral procession, which was about a mile in length, started at 2:30 o'clock from the cathedral, marching to Euston Station. It was estimated that 3000 persons took part in it. A priest at the head of the procession recited prayers. Great crowds lined the streets throughout the course of the march, presenting a respectful attitude.

The Sinn Fein colors were plentifully in evidence, but no banners were displayed. The whole procession was assembled and carried through without any trouble developing.

Three of the nine cars composing the train carrying the body of Lord Mayor MacSwiney were loaded with police as the train left Euston Station.

Volunteers Keep Vigil.
Silent vigil was kept at St. George's Cathedral during the night over the coffin of MacSwiney. When dawn filtered in through the lofty windows of the gray old Cathedral, first preparations began for the requiem mass at 11 o'clock.

The guard, members of the London and Cork Brigades of the Irish volunteer army, was changed frequently during the night. The men were dressed in civilian clothing, and did not carry arms. The yellow light of the candles fell on the green, white and orange colors of the Sinn Fein flag which was draped over the coffin, which rested on a catafalque placed before the high altar of the church.

Lady Mayores MacSwiney collapsed from strain and anxiety the morning and was unable to participate in the ceremony at the Cathedral. It is not expected she will accompany the body of her husband to Ireland.

Saloons and Factories To Be Closed in Ireland Tomorrow.
DUBLIN, Oct. 28.—The funeral arrangements for Lord Mayor MacSwiney in Dublin are as follows:

The body will arrive by Friday morning's mail train and will be escorted to West Landrow to the Pro-Cathedral, where mass will be said at 11 o'clock. After the mass, which will be attended by the Lord Mayor of Dublin and representatives of the Dublin corporation, the body will be conveyed to board a train for Cork about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Labor party issued detailed instructions concerning work on Friday. Trains will be stopped for a few minutes at midday, the tramways from 10 to 15 minutes; the hotels and restaurants will suspend service for a similar period, and all shops, except those selling food, and all saloons and factories will be closed throughout the day.

The newspapers and the telegraph offices will not be affected. All Catholic churches in the city announce requiem mass for Friday.

DENTON LEFT $125,000; DAUGHTER IS ONLY HEIR

Mrs. Peete's 4-Year-Old Daughter Is Not to Be Told of Mother's Arrest.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 28.—The estate left by Jacob C. Denton, for whose murder Mrs. Louise Peete of Denver was indicted yesterday, is valued at $125,000, according to a petition for letters of administration on file in the County Clerk's office.

The petitioner is Judge Russ Avery, named as administrator in Denton's will. Frances Denton, 16 years old, daughter of the deceased, is the only heir named in the petition.

Mrs. Peete's daughter, Betty, 4 years old, is not to be informed of the arrest of her mother, it was announced last night. Mrs. Peete asked this one favor and the officers granted it.

Mrs. Peete Arraigned.
Mrs. Peete last night was in the county jail awaiting trial for Nov. 29.

Proceedings against the former occupant of the Denton residence, in the cellar of which the mining man's body was found buried Sept. 23, moved yesterday with speed.

When the time came for her to plead she removed a cape from her head and face and stood with head up and chin out.

"You have heard the indictment," said the court. "How do you plead, guilty or not guilty?"

Without a second's delay, and in a voice loud and clear and firm, the accused woman answered:

"Not guilty."

Judge Willis said Nov. 29 was the earliest available for the trial.

The evidence upon which the indictment was based was said to include these alleged facts: Mrs. Peete caused to be hauled into the Denton cellar the earth under which the body of MacSwiney was found; she belonged to Denton; disposed of his automobile; she gave away part of his clothing and cashed checks bearing the signature of J. C. Denton, after it is believed, he had been murdered.

Instructions concerning work on Friday. Trains will be stopped for a few minutes at midday, the tramways from 10 to 15 minutes; the hotels and restaurants will suspend service for a similar period, and all shops, except those selling food, and all saloons and factories will be closed throughout the day.

At a special meeting of the Dublin Corporation, Capt. McWalter, High Sheriff, urged that those persons who are in the confidence of the remaining hunger strikers ask them not to persist further.

"It would be too shocking and horrible," he said, "that after three have died the others should be allowed to drop off. The spirit of humanity of all Ireland, must appeal to these men and not allow them to starve themselves to death."

FOREIGN OFFICIALS TO ATTEND GREEK KING'S FUNERAL

Crown Prince of Sweden Arrives for Services Tomorrow—Body Taken to Cathedral in Ruler's Auto.

KING KEPT ALIVE FOR DAYS WITH OXYGEN

Young Monarch Was Conscious at Death and Succumbed While Trying to Embrace Wife.

By the Associated Press.
ATHENS, Oct. 28.—Funeral services for the late King Alexander, which will be held tomorrow, will be attended by the Crown Prince of Sweden, according to present arrangements. He is now in this city. Other nations probably will be represented by diplomatic officials.

The entire press of Greece, in commenting on the death of King Alexander, deplores the loss of the young sovereign, who during a short reign had won great popularity.

The body of King Alexander was conveyed yesterday from Tatol to the Cathedral in Athens in his own motor car, which was driven by his great friend, Lieut. Stavro Metaxas. The coffin was draped in the royal flag.

The improvised hearse was followed by several motor cars. In the first of which was Dowager Queen Olga with a lady-in-waiting, while in the second was the widow of the King, Madame Manos, accompanied by M. Cypariss, Grand Marshal of the court.

The members of the Cabinet and high officials awaited the arrival of the aged Dowager Queen and her son, the king, at the Cathedral. The body was placed on a catafalque guarded by a special detail of soldiers and officers.

Cathedral Crowded.
After brief prayers the mourners withdrew and the public was admitted to the Cathedral. The crowd was so dense that it was extremely difficult to maintain order.

In medical circles here the opinion is expressed that the King's death was due mainly to hepatization of the lungs, following pulmonary infection, and an affection of the heart. The blood poisoning perhaps could have been cured, it was said.

King Alexander was kept alive for days by artificial means. During his last afternoon his wife, Mme. Manos, named as administrator in Denton's will. Frances Denton, 16 years old, daughter of the deceased, is the only heir named in the petition.

Mrs. Peete's daughter, Betty, 4 years old, is not to be informed of the arrest of her mother, it was announced last night. Mrs. Peete asked this one favor and the officers granted it.

BRITAIN RENOUNCES CONFISCATION OF GERMAN PROPERTY

French Foreign Office Announces Notification in Case of Holdings in the United Kingdom.

NO LIKE ACTION CONSIDERED IN PARIS

Surprise Expressed There; Britain Reserves Rights Only in Case of Voluntary Default.

By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 28.—The French Foreign Office received official notification today that Great Britain renounces the right to confiscation of German property in the United Kingdom.

This has caused great surprise, which is freely expressed in French official circles, as there had been no previous intimation that such a move was probable.

French officials emphasize the gravity of this move, as they fear Germany will make a similar request by default by Germany, and which could not be granted. However, they point out that the renunciation by Great Britain of her rights under paragraph 18, annex 11, of part 8 of the treaty of Versailles, is not as sweeping as reported at first.

Some complaint is made because France is confronted with an accomplished fact, without having been given an opportunity to discuss the matter.

It was said at the Foreign Office today that France would send a reply to the British note. Official circles add that Great Britain retains her rights in case of voluntary default by Germany. The paragraph of the treaty providing for this contingency reads:

"The measures which the allied and associated Powers shall have the right to take, in case of voluntary default by Germany, and which Germany agrees not to regard as acts of war, include economic and financial provisions and reprisals, and in general such other measures as may be necessary in the circumstances."

Washington View of British Action on German Property.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—State Department officials, discussing Great Britain's announcement to the French Foreign Office that it had renounced the right of confiscation of German property in the United Kingdom, today it was their understanding that any surplus of German seized property over that applied to the German debts would not be confiscated by the British Government.

It was explained that the British had adopted the "clearing house system" of disposing of the German seized property under the terms of the treaty. By this means German seized property in the United Kingdom would be used to offset the claims of British nationals against Germany, and the remainder applied to war reparations. The French would be refunded to make up the deficiencies which may exist between moneys on hand, collected or above accounted for and the moneys expended, or which may hereafter be expended, by the committee.

Upham answered in the affirmative. The report shows no shadow of a doubt that the committee will be able to make up the deficit that may exist after the election, but the affidavit states that "the committee does, however, contemplate the continuation of its campaign of funds with which to discharge its unpaid debts."

Asked by the committee whether there were "any agreements, expressed or implied, made or contemplated, to the effect that any moneys will be refunded to make up the deficiencies which may exist between moneys on hand, collected or above accounted for and the moneys expended, or which may hereafter be expended, by the committee," Upham said he knew of no such agreements.

Other Obligations.
Another question asked was: "Is there any agreement of the character referred to in question 1, in connection with the underlying obligations which may be hereafter incurred by the committee or any of its officers or agents?" The Treasurer said there was none.

In response to another question he said: "I know of no committee, associations, organizations, or individuals who are contributing or who have promised or agreed to contribute to the financial side of the campaign of the party within the various states."

Settlement of American claims in the Lusitania and other similar cases is still an open question, it was said at the department, and that matter also is one to be disposed of by Congress. While Germany has admitted the claims in the case of the Lusitania, officials said the adjudication of claims had not been taken up.

ST. LOUIS CHAPTER, K. OF C., CONDEMNS REID CARTOON

Resolution Adopted at Regular Meeting Calls Drawing in Republican Organ an Insult to Catholics.

Following a discussion of the Republican propaganda cartoon depicting Gov. Cox hanging a picture entitled "Prof. Wilson's League of Nations—the Immaculate Conception," which appeared in the Oct. 9 issue of the National Republican, a recognized Republican party organ, printed in Washington, and in last week's issue of Harvey's Weekly, the St. Louis Chapter of the Knights of Columbus, in monthly session last night at Knights of Columbus Hall, 3549 Olive street, adopted a resolution characterizing the cartoon as "an insult to the Catholics of the world" and condemning all persons responsible for its publication and circulation. The text of the resolution follows:

"Resolved, by the St. Louis Chapter, Knights of Columbus, that the cartoon appearing in Harvey's Weekly, entitled 'Having Difficulty in Hanging the Masterpiece,' is an insult to the Catholics of the world. We condemn any and all persons responsible for its creation, publication and circulation. We declare that the cartoon is a sneer at an article of faith, to which we are heartily devoted. We consider it a slur at the mother of the Divine Christ. We brand it as the work of religious bigots.

Copy to Be Sent to Editor.
A copy of the resolution will be sent to the editor of Harvey's Weekly."

The Chapter is composed of 22 delegates representing the 16 local councils of the organization, which have a total of nearly 10,000 men members.

A copy of Harvey's Weekly, containing the cartoon, was brought to the meeting by a delegate who explained that the Chapter ought to look after the rights of the Catholics of the world. The discussion followed and the vote on the resolution was unanimous.

New Officers Elected.
Officers for the year 1920-21 were elected last night as follows: George T. Higgins, chairman; Thomas J. Casey, vice chairman; John T. Nugent, secretary; Dr. H. P. Westhoff, treasurer; M. A. Watson, guard, and A. C. Kaletka, John Barada and John Hogan, trustees.

Post-Dispatch, the Catholic Laymen's Association of Missouri, at a meeting Wednesday night at 3520 Easton avenue, sent a letter of protest to the editor of Harvey's Weekly protesting against the cartoon as infamous, and in the discussion of the subject speakers denounced Col. Harvey and the national Republican campaign managers.

Under the corrupt practices act reports on campaign expenditures must be filed "not less than 10 days" before the election. Page said no campaign reports had been received from either organization explaining its failure to file.

Supplementary reports are required from each of the organizations coming within the statute six days after the election. The report. It was expected that the supplementary statements from the Republican and Democratic National Committees would be received today. These reports were presented today to the Senate Committee on Investigation, Committee at Chicago, but they also must be filed with the clerk of the House.

Answers to Questions.
With his report Upham filed a sworn affidavit answering a series of written questions put to him by the senatorial committee. The affidavit sets forth that the "amount to be expended by the committee for the further purpose of the campaign does not exceed the sum of $400,000, which is the aggregate sum unexpended of the appropriation provided for in the budget of the committee of the questions asked by the committee:

"Have you in the foregoing statements truthfully and fully set forth all moneys paid or promised, whether by the committee or any of its officers or agents, in the sum of money or an agreement to pay an indefinite sum, or to contribute with others to any fund or funds now being collected or to be hereafter collected?"

Upham answered in the affirmative. The report shows no shadow of a doubt that the committee will be able to make up the deficit that may exist after the election, but the affidavit states that "the committee does, however, contemplate the continuation of its campaign of funds with which to discharge its unpaid debts."

POLICE RAID FLAT AND SEIZE QUANTITY OF RAISIN WHISKY

Arrested in Vandeventer

Police, who noted that a license on one of two automobiles parked in front of 1121A North Vandeventer avenue was issued in Wyoming, raided the flat at that address at 12:40 a. m. today and after finding a quantity of raisin whisky in the place arrested Charles L. Fisher, 27 years old, and his wife, Leona, 23, who occupy the place, and three persons who were visiting them at the time.

The visitors said they were Frank
Anthony, 6811 Nashville avenue;
John Kehoe, 22, who gave the Vandeventer avenue address, and Leonard Boulware of Meeteetse, Wyo.
Boulware said the machine with the Wyoming State license belonged to him. Anthony claimed the other.
Fisher opposed police entrance into the flat until he was overpowered. Inside the police confiscated 11 quarts, three pints and a half-gallon jug of raisin whisky and found two barrels empty that smelled of whisky. The prisoners were held for the

Why does he do it?

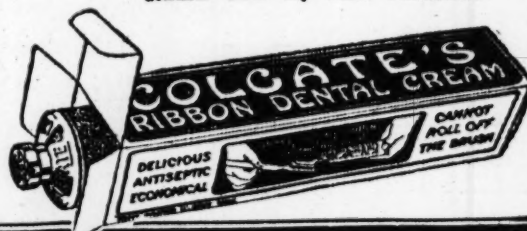

One man uses a "druggy" dentifrice—because he guesses it "tastes efficient"; cuts off the tartar, scours the teeth white.

But is it safe? Does it scratch the enamel or harm the gums? Does his dentist recommend it?
Probably he never thought of that!

If you are one of those who do think you must use Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream... because it never scratches,
and contains no harmful chemicals, Colgate's is recommended by more dentists than any other dentifrice.

Handmade Blouses

That Are Extraordinary Values

A TRIP to New York—a fortune-favored day of good bargaining—and presto!—on our shelves repose dozens of lingerie Blouses, each one daintily boastful of the exquisite handwork which appears in its making and in its decoration. But their period of repose is doomed to be a short one—for you are not going to allow them to remain in the shop when once you see them in all their fetching beauty and realize that five dollars will make one of them yours.

The illustration shows—

A graceful Blouse of soft batiste, combined with odd patterns of drawnwork and embroidered dots. Fine filet Picot lace edge collar and cuffs. Illustrated in center.

A most effective affair of fine batiste, which shows the Greek fretwork design in drawnwork and fine piped scallops on front, collar and cuffs. Illustrated on right.

A convertible-collared Blouse of batiste is distinctive in its tailored lines, softened by a most effective use of drawnwork. Illustrated on left.

This but suggests the many styles available in Friday's selling. Sizes 34 to 46 are represented. (Third Floor.)

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, will defend his title against Georges Carpentier, the Old World wonder man, at Havana, Cuba,
in a bout to be promoted by Tex Rickard, C. E. Cochran of London and William A. Brady, the new York theatrical producer.
Dempsey and Carpentier will box
for $500,000—the largest guarantee ever offered in the history of the sport. The details of the match were finally settled yesterday afternoon at a meeting in Brady's office in the Play House. The previous high mark was $127,500 for the Willard-Dempsey bout.
No papers were signed. The actual signing of signatures and the announcement of the date will come next week on the arrival of a representative of the syndicate of Cuban capitalists who made an offer of such proportions that the promoters had no hesitancy in accepting Havana as the battleground for the greatest of all international fistic struggles.

Dempsey is to receive a flat guarantee of $300,000 for his end, and Carpentier, bound to a contract entered into with Cochran in London, is to be paid in English pounds, the agreement calling for a payment of £40,000, which at the present rate of exchange is equal to about $160,000
in United States coin.

"YOUTH" TOO MORBID IN REALISM ATTEMPTS

German Play a Sensation Among Sexual Dramas, but Is Brutal and Repugnant.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—There ought to be very little room in our theaters for such pathological distortions as Max Hailbe's "Jugend" ("Youth"). But if there be those who will contend that they are either interesting or profitable, the Greenwich Village Theater is probably as good a place as any other in which to ventilate them. At this downtown playhouse last night the rumble of the emancipated villagers in the audience happily combined with the rumble of trains in the adjacent subway to blur at least a part of the morbid stuff that gushed from the stage.

"Youth" has been commendably slow in getting into its English translation. In this respect it has been outstripped by Frank Wedekind's play of similar purpose, "Frustrated" ("Die Frau im Spiegel"). The purpose of the play is to provide vicarious sensations for audiences overfed upon plays dealing with sexual subjects. Hailbe wrote it in 1893 and German theatergoers have been gorging themselves greedily upon it for 17 years. If we remember correctly, Rudolf Christians attempted to produce its German version at the Irving Place Theater about four years ago.

As the lesser of two evils, both of which should be repugnant to any normal appetite or taste, it is a better play than "The Awakening of Spring." At least it is not so brutally literal or so nauseating in its attempts at morbid realism. It also has in it the fine dramatic contrast of the two priests—the one old, liberal, understanding, filled with compassion and cine with knowledge gained through experience; the other young, narrow, ascetic, intolerant, blind and unforgiving. It is he who is to blame for the tragedy of the adolescent lovers. It is he also, who withholds from the girl forgiveness and absolution when she is shot down by her maniac brother.

With the exception of its studies of these two priests "Youth" is morbid, dreary, unprofitable and unpalatable stuff. A symbolism of springtime accompanies the telling of the bitter story. The fat children at the Greenwich Village are cousins. The girl is a victim of inherited sexual craving. The boy, bursting with the joy and energy of youth, visits her on his way to school, at the home of the gentle old priest, whose ward she is. Both are seized with emotions and impulses which they cannot comprehend. Both give way to them. The old priest makes the discovery through the girl's skulking, idiot brother. To the intolerant young priest, the girl's father confessor, he sternly draws the moral. In such a predicament as hers the little girl must be gotten rid of. The idiot shoots her from the window. A sweet and pleasant story, this, for an evening at the theater.

Last night's performance was distinguished by the fine, appealing acting of that accomplished artist, Adolph Ling, in the role of the old priest. If only the traces of his mother tongue did not intrude so constantly to make unintelligible his speech. Edward B. Reese also had effective moments as the young priest. Reginald Sheffield and Lois

Churchill as the adolescents were boisterous, noisy, over-emphatic. Perhaps, though, this was a part of the producers' intent, a part of their general scheme to provide as unsavory a night as possible in the theater.

3 NEW EPISCOPAL BISHOPS ELECTED

Posts in Western Kansas and Honolulu Filled—Suffragan Name for Liberia.

Three new bishops of the Episcopal Church were elected today by the House of Bishops, in session since yesterday at Schuyler Memorial House 1210 Locust street. One of the new bishops, a suffragan bishop, is a negro, and will officiate in Liberia, Africa.

The Rev. Robert H. Mize, rector of St. Paul's Church, Kansas City, Kan., was elected missionary bishop of the diocese of Salina (Western) Kan., and the Rev. J. D. Le Mothe, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Baltimore, Md., was elected missionary bishop of Honolulu, H. I., to succeed Bishop Restarick, who resigned because of ill health.

The post of suffragan bishop in Liberia went to Theodore Momolu Eardiner, a native of Liberia, who will assist Bishop Owers. Bishop Eardiner was educated in the Episcopal church schools in Liberia and was ordained a minister by Bishop Ferguson about 20 years ago.

Until the election of Bishop Owers, Bishop Eardiner was practically the ecclesiastical head of the diocese of Liberia. He is 50 years old.

The vacancy in the missionary episcopate of Haiti, in existence for several years, was not filled at this session of the House of Bishops, and may not be for some time. Nominations of about 12 rectors proposed for the three Episcopal vacancies were made yesterday, in secret session.

The election of Bishops began after a communion service at 10 a. m. in Christ Church Cathedral, which was for the Bishops alone, and which was celebrated by Bishop Tuttle and Bishop Gallor. Frederick Joseph Kinsman, formerly bishop of Delaware, who quit the church last year and became a layman in the Roman Catholic faith, was formally deposed from the Episcopal ministry yesterday afternoon. The ceremony of deposition was private, and consisted of the reading of the proper canon of the church and the passage of a formal resolution. A report of a committee was accepted, recommending the setting aside of the third Sunday in Advent for the preaching of special sermons in all Episcopal churches urging young men to enter the ministry. This action followed an address by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts.

Bishop Wise held communion service at the Church of the Holy Communion this morning in celebration of the fourth anniversary of his consecration as a bishop. On Oct. 28, 1916, Bishop Tuttle consecrated him at that church.

Failed to Transfer License, Held. James Connors, 1412 Monroe street, failed to transfer an automobile license issued to A. W. Wayters, 1808 North Elliot avenue, to himself when he bought Wayters' automobile two months ago and yesterday police arrested Connors charging him with operating an automobile without a license. The arrest resulted from a collision between a machine driven by Connors and a United States mail truck at Seventh and Lynch streets. The auto was damaged $150, but the truck was not damaged. Tracing the license on the car driven by Connors, police learned it had been issued to Wayters. A warrant will be applied for.

British Expedition to Sail Tomorrow for South Pole

Will Spend Six Years Gathering Data and Studying Influences of Antarctic Conditions Over Australia and South Africa

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A British Imperial Polar expedition, which will have a six years' geographical, geological and meteorological survey of the continent about the South Pole, with a view to commercial development of the frozen tract, will sail tomorrow from Norfolk, Va., Commander John L. Cope, veteran Arctic explorer, announced here last night.

Commander Cope said the enterprise would be the greatest exploring expedition ever undertaken by England. More than 100 men, four ships, 20 dogs, several airplanes, an

MINISTER FASTS 3 WEEKS IN EFFORT TO CONVERT DAUGHTER

Announces Receipt of Message That All Would Be Well and Resumes Eating.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 27.—After more than three weeks of a hunger strike the Rev. Joel Woodridge has begun to eat again. He started on the hunger strike after his daughter, Dela, had refused to join the church. He announced he would never eat again unless she came down the "sawdust trail" at a revival he was conducting at Haye's Chapel, Russell County, Ky., not far from Denmark, his home. After more than three weeks of going without food he announced he had received a message that all would be well, and so he began to eat again.

He had read about Lord Mayor MacSwiney, and decided to emulate him. He continued to conduct his revival until after his strength was almost gone. The last few nights of his self-imposed fast he became so weak he could not walk into his pulpit, so he had a cot installed upon the platform and preached lying upon it. His voice grew so weak he could scarcely be heard.

Miss Woodridge was teaching school seven miles away. The whole county became interested in the clash of wills between father and daughter. When the Rev. Mr. Woodridge appealed to his daughter she declared she could not profess anything she did not feel. The attention the case attracted became so embarrassing to the girl that she left her school for a time, but she did not join the church.

Morris W. Seymour, Lawyer, Dies.

By the Associated Press. LITCHFIELD, Conn., Oct. 28.—Morris Woodruff Seymour, prominent Connecticut lawyer for half a century, died here today. He was a Yale alumnus, class of 1866, and had been a lecturer in Yale Law School.

SUIT TO RECOVER $17,500 ON ADMINISTRATOR'S BOND

Allegation Made That Claim of Mother Against Son Was Falsely Reported.

A suit on the bond of Frederick Hettler as administrator of the estate of Edward Wolf, who died Dec. 21, 1914, was filed yesterday by Joseph C. Schroeder, who is now in charge of the affairs of the same estate. The suit is for $17,500 and is directed against the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co.

Wolf's mother, who was his only heir, died in 1916, and Schroeder is acting in behalf of collateral heirs. He alleges that on June 14, 1914, Hettler, while guardian for Edward Wolf, who had been adjudged of unsound mind, presented in the Probate Court a claim of $17,500 by Mrs. Wolf against her son. The claim was subsequently paid, but when the inventory of Mrs. Wolf's estate was filed this item did not appear. Schroeder avers that the claim was falsely reported by Hettler. Edward Wolf was a real estate dealer.

Rain in Illinois Aids Crops.
By the Associated Press.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 28.—Rain, which was general over Illinois the past few days, has greatly benefited fall-sown grains, pastures and plowing operations, and is tending to check the Hessian fly menace, according to the Weather Bureau's crop bulletin issued yesterday.

SALESMAN TRIES TO END LIFE

Henry Fischlowitz, 54 years old, of 6850A Page boulevard, a salesman, attempted to end his life by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver of small caliber while in the bedroom of his home at 4 p. m. yesterday.

He was taken to St. John's Hospital, where doctors said the bullet had emerged at the back of the neck near the spine. His condition is serious.

Fischlowitz told the police he had been ill and had purchased the revolver yesterday from a Market street pawn shop.

The Draft Enters

The most perfect draft ever applied to combustion, is the patent Hot Blast Down Draft of the SIMMONS Wilson Heaters.

SIMMONS WILSON Hot Blast Heater

The air enters at the top, mixing with the combustion gases and fire, producing heat units to the full efficiency of the fuel used, doubling the heat units.

In other words, only half the amount of fuel used in ordinary heaters is necessary. The SIMMONS Wilson is air-tight, making perfect combustion possible and a fire can be held 36 hours.

SAYS MEXICO NEEDS CONFIDENCE OF U. S.

Trade Commissioner Finds Chief Rehabilitation Problem Is in Interesting American Capital.

Mexico's chief problem at present in effecting rehabilitation is to obtain the confidence of American bankers, manufacturers and exporters, according to Charles H. Cunningham, trade commissioner of the Department of Commerce, who recently returned from Mexico.

Cunningham is making his headquarters at the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, 402 Third National Bank Building, for a time, and will advise business men of Mexican trade conditions. He will address the World Trade Club at 6:15 this evening at the American Annex Hotel. In an interview he said:

"The entire success of our future trade in Mexico largely depends upon the co-operation and assistance of American business men and bankers in the restoration of that country to a normal status. Through no fault of its own, Mexico has not been normal for some years, and recent events are showing that it is doing everything it can to place itself on a firm status. However, Mexico does not itself produce some of the material elements which are necessary for the rehabilitation of the country."

Mexico Needs Machinery. "These elements include agricultural machinery, railroad supplies such as rails, cars, car parts and locomotives, mining machinery and, lastly, automobiles. These particular commodities we have and the entire problem at the present time for Mexico is the securing of sufficient confidence on the part of American bankers, manufacturers and exporters so that these supplies and facilities may be afforded her under the most favorable circumstances."

"At the present time Mexico seems to be quiet. There seems to be no armed opposition to the Government in any quarter. If this condition of affairs can be maintained through the events of the coming three or four months, Mexico will have shown that she deserves the confidence of American bankers and exporters. It is not advisable to be too sanguine with respect to immediate profits from any investments in Mexico. However, it is my firm opinion that Mexico has reached a status where investments may be made with a fair prospect of an investment return, and I believe investments will be safe. Americans going into Mexico for trade should build on the investment basis and, above all things, should not expect any immediate or fabulous returns. "Should Send Investigators." "Now is the time for American manufacturers and exporters to send investigators of their own to look over the field. Do not trust entirely to the reports of interested persons. If the Mexican trade is worth going after and business justifies it, send a trusted man into the field to look over the situation over. This is especially true of those handling specialized lines for no Government official or casual traveler unless he is particularly acquainted with your specialized line, can give you the accurate information that you need, but I can assure you that the general condition of Mexico at present in Mexico are such as will justify a serious consideration of Mexico as a field for the expansion of our trade."

WRANGEL'S POSITION IN SOUTH RUSSELL REPORTED TO BE SECURE

Paris Hears Anti-Bolshevik Leader Has Withstood Drive of Reds.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—The French Foreign Office hears that Gen. Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander in South Russia, has succeeded in withstanding the Bolshevik drive. His position was said now to be apparently secure, and he will be able to hold the Crimea and part of Transcaucasia during the winter.

M. Martel, French High Commissioner to the Wrangel Government, arrived in Sebastopol a few days ago, and will make a full report on the situation.

CATHOLIC PAPER URGES IRISH TO SUPPORT CO

"Western Watchman" Argues That Republicans Are Not Opposed to League.

An editorial, urging Irish sympathizers in the United States to vote
the Democratic national ticket, appears in the latest issue of The Western Watchman, St. Louis Catholic weekly. The Watchman, of which the late Father D. S. Phelan was editor for many years, is now edited by the Very Rev. Michael S. Ryan,
M. president of Kenrick Seminary.

The editorial is as follows:
"We say that all signs point to the fact that the American people are not opposed to a League of Nations
or for that matter, to the League
Nations. Those signs are found in the conduct of the Republican campaign and the Republican campaign
speeches. True, Senator Hardin did proclaim on one occasion that he was against the League of Nations with or without reservations. Yet he was quick to explain that he opposed only the Wilson application of the League principle, not the principle itself. But his campaign committee would not go to that length. It contented itself with opposition to certain features of the covenant, that is, it is willing to accept the League of Nations with reservations.

"Republicans Show Timidity."
The editorial is as follows:
"We say that all signs point to
the fact that the American people are
not opposed to a League of Nations
or for that matter, to the League

paign and the Republican campaign

would not go to that length. It con-
tented itself with opposition to certain features of the covenant, that

If we have correctly stated the situation, the position of certain Irish sympathizers is most anomalous. In identifying their cause with that of the Republican party in this election, they have shown little in the shape of political acumen or clever strategy. They have merely let the spite get the best of them. As without intending to do so, they have contributed in no slight measure to strengthen the calumny that there is in this country a hyphenated vote that a candidate's attitude toward another nation's best welfare and America is made the test of his giving or withholding support.

"Why an Absolute Recantation."
By all means let honest opponents keep up their fight against League of Nations; but let that opposition be post, not pre-election
since both parties stand for substantially the same thing. Why are Democrats to give up their party word play? Why ask Democrats to Irish birth, descent or extraction who have always had something grounded suspicion that Republican party chiefs considered them as their poor, contemptible pariahs, bit better than Chinese coolies, who ask Democrats of this kind to make an absolute recantation? Why are they to elicit an act of political fall in a candidate who has not manhood enough or intelligent sympaty enough to state the Irish question in its true terms?

"We repeat here what we said

for Democrats with an slavish hatred of Known-Nothingism to dis-sert Cox for Harding. They are insulting a leaguer for an antileaguer, but choosing between two leaguers. For anti-leaguers in the election are men without a party."

PONSSELLE GIVES HER BEST LOCAL RECITAL

Forward Strides Notable in Metropolitan Singer's Program at Moolah Temple.

By far the best singing which Miss Rosa Ponselle has done in this city was heard last night at Moolah Temple, where the young dramatic soprano was heard at the fourth annual concert given for the benefit of the St. Louis Children's Hospital. Nature gifted her with a fine vocal instrument; she is learning rapidly to play upon it. Unless many signs fail, she is well on the way to becoming a very interesting and valuable concert artist.

Obviously she has been studying with diligence—something to which not all persons would subject themselves if good fairies had hurried them in a few months from the vaudeville stage to leading roles at the Metropolitan. The improvement in sincerity, taste and reticence is notable. The moods of expression have much less the seeming of having been learned by rote and a flickering merely upon the surface of the voice; they appear to rise from emotions authentically felt, and to permeate the very texture of the tones.

With a voice so high and powerful as Miss Ponselle's, and with the easy fluency that can always be excited with the big and mountainous note, there is a temptation to use it constantly at full blast. If last night's essay is characteristic, Miss Ponselle is actually cultivating the soft tone. Singing dramatic parts in opera and interpreting songs in recital are to each other as epic and miniature painting; having triumphed in the one, she seems advancing towards gratifying results in the other.

Beauty of Voice.

The dolorous aria, "Pleurax, pleurez, mes yeux," from Massenet's "Le Cid," received a very expressive delivery, in which were combined beauty of voice, strength of feeling and restraint of means. Verdi's great aria, "Pace, pace, mio Dio," from "La Forza del Destino," has been sung by Miss Ponselle at each of her three concerts here, and thus affords a convenient scale for comparison. The improvement is inescapable, and the final result is one for which the singer need make few apologies. The bolero, "Merce, dileto amiche," from "Vespro Siciliano," remains a bit too rapid for her present executive attainments.

Three Italian songs of the eighteenth century proved very enjoyable, as did also Silvert's gentle and appealing "The Message." Leon's "Tally-Ho," with its galloping rhythm of the hunt and its sympathy for a fox harried by hounds, was one of the most effective pieces of the program. Miss Ponselle is scarcely as yet a mark-worthy interpreter of the lied. If one may judge by her essay with Schumann's "Hidden Tears," sung in English.

Her accompanist, William Tyroler, played in vigorous style two piano transcriptions from Wagner's "Love-Death" from "Tristan and Isolde" and the "Splashing Song" from "The Flying Dutchman," as well as the Schumann-Liszt "Dedication" and the "Juba Dance" by Nathaniel Dett. Pupils of Miss Fay Bates presented four dance numbers. The concert was followed by the annual ball which is given for the Children's Hospital. The attendance was ample.

HEALTH DIRECTOR DOUBTS IF MILK IS KILLING BABIES

Dr. Starkloff Admits Quality Is Not as Good as Desired, but Challenges Statements as to Illness.

CITES FIGURES ON INFANT MORTALITY

Declares That if St. Louis Is to Have Better Milk More Money Must Be Given for Safeguard.

A statement admitting that the milk supply of St. Louis is not as good as desired, but challenging statements of physicians that it is producing sickness and deaths among children, was issued today by Health Commissioner Starkloff.

The Health Commissioner also takes issue with the statement of Dr. Borden S. Veeder, former commander of Hospital Unit No. 21 in France, that 75 per cent of the infants in St. Louis are breast-fed and that virtually only 10 per cent consume cow's milk, in contradiction of a frequent statement that the low infant mortality rate of St. Louis is proof of the good quality of the city's milk. For the purposes of vital statistics and professional discussion, an infant is a child under one year in age.

Starkloff's Statement.

The Health Commissioner's statement follows:

"The Health Department realizes the fact that the milk of St. Louis is not, and never has been, what it should be, and we believe from information that we have been able to gather that this is true of every large city in the United States.

"This is due so far as it relates to St. Louis to three things:

"First: Lack of sufficient supervision at the source of supply.

"Second: Lack of proper means of transportation.

"Third: Lack of sufficient working force in this city to properly supervise all of the quality of the city's milk. A large proportion of the milk consumed in St. Louis is normally supplied from Southern Illinois and shipped to St. Louis in ordinary baggage cars.

"First: I believe that it is the duty of the State of Illinois to supervise the dairies in that State as to see that proper sanitary conditions are maintained in the dairies over which they only have control.

"Second—I believe that it is the duty of the United States Government to see that milk which is not clean and wholesome is not allowed to be shipped interstate, and the United States Government only has authority in interstate shipments.

"Third—I believe that it is the duty of the city of St. Louis to see that, if a clean and wholesome milk is delivered to this city, the same is handled and delivered to the consumer in a sanitary manner.

"I believe that if the criterion as to wholesomeness and cleanliness of the milk is to be judged entirely by the bacterial count, that this city will never be able, at all times in hot weather, to receive a proper milk, for the reason that we are sure that no matter how clean a milk may be at its source of production, in order to prevent extensive bacterial count by the time the milk is received here, proper refrigeration must be provided from the time the milk is produced until it is delivered, particularly in hot weather, and in addition separate milk cars should be provided to prevent contamination.

Milk Shipped Long Distance.

"We have, so far as we have been able, made a bacterial count of milk received in this city, and this count showed during the hot weather a high and in cold weather a low bacterial count. During the winter months this count has very frequently been below the bacterial count allowed for pasteurized milk, that is, 50,000 per c. c.

"It is true that the milk recently received has been shipped from long distances, but it is also true that milk can be shipped from long distances and be a good and wholesome milk, provided it is properly safeguarded and refrigerated. This is illustrated in the instance of the milk produced on farms of the United States, shipped to the Paris Exposition and reaching there in good condition. The milk recently received here has been shipped from Chicago, Wisconsin, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Iowa, these long shipments occurring by reason of the fact that it was charged by distributors here that the former producers in Illinois were attempting profiteering, and making a price to the distributor in this city which would have resulted in an immense increase in the price of milk to the consumer. This milk was produced on the farms of men engaged entirely in the dairy business, and not on the farms where the milk supply was simply an incident to the farm. As in Southern Illinois, I believe that the milk was produced under better sanitary conditions than have existed at the previous source of supply in Illinois. In addition, all of this milk was shipped refrigerated. Inasmuch as this milk on an average has been about the same as the milk previously received from Southern Illinois, I do not believe that it was any worse milk and with the probability that it was better.

Refers to Mass Meeting.

"At a recent milk mass meeting at the Statler Hotel some rather unusual statements were made. "First, the statement was made that the milk of St. Louis was uniformly very bad. This statement was based on the examination of only eight or nine samples of milk collected, and it is evident that such an investigation is not a true index of all the milk supply of the city of St. Louis.

"Another statement that was made was that disease germs had been found in the milk. It is the expert-

ence of this department, based on the statements of entirely competent bacteriologists, that it is very difficult, if not impossible, to isolate pathogenic or disease-producing bacteria in milk or water. It is remarkable also that if such pathogenic organisms were in the milk supply, the attention of this department was not called to the fact. Pathogenic organisms in milk are distinctly a menace to human life, just as any other poison would be a menace; it is certainly the duty of any citizen to at once call attention to such a condition when found.

"Another statement that was made was that the milk supply of St. Louis had absolutely nothing to do with the decreased infant mortality, although everyone knows that infants and young children are the largest consumers of milk. The mortality among infants and young children in St. Louis compares favorably with that of any of the large cities of the United States. In fact, the mortality of infants is far lower in St. Louis than in any of the larger cities of a population of 600,000 or over.

Infant Mortality in Cities.

"The infant mortality per thousand births in 1919 was as follows: "New York, 81.6; Philadelphia, 89.8; Cleveland, 90.8; Chicago, 91.0; Detroit, 96.8; Boston, 96.8; Baltimore, 97.0; St. Louis, 75.0.

"The following are the total deaths from diarrheal diseases in children under 2 years for the year 1919 in the following cities: Chicago, 253; New York, 236; Philadelphia, 298; Detroit, 624; Baltimore, 615; Cleveland, 549; Pittsburgh, 444; Buffalo, 459; Boston, 338; St. Louis, 187.

"It seems to us that such figures cannot be reconciled with the assumption that milk is killing babies in St. Louis.

"When the statement was made that milk had nothing to do with the

ADVERTISEMENT Society Ladies Adopt New Hair Curling Method

Since the introduction of the aluminum method in this country, it has become quite "the proper thing" among society women, who have readily adopted it in place of the destructive curling iron. The waves and curls acquired by the new method are far more natural in appearance, and the hair of course is kinder and prettier than could be if the life were cooked out of it.

DAUGHTERS OF 1812 IN CONFERENCE HERE

State Meeting Attended by Several Women Who Stay Over From D. A. R. Convention.

THE annual conference of the State Society of the Daughters of 1812 was held today at a luncheon at the Hotel Statler. Guests included, besides the delegates to the conference, several women who attended the annual State convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which has been in session this week at the Statler. Among those who remained in the city for the meeting today were: Mrs. E. E. Kirt of Chillicothe, State regent-elect of the D. A. R.; Henry Harris of Sedalia, State vice regent-elect of the D. A. R.; W. W. Gray of Jefferson City and George E. George of Kansas City.

A number of large affairs have been given during the week in honor of the visitors to the two conventions. The Webster Groves Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, entertained with a tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. M. Skinner, in honor of Mrs. George Manyard Minor of Washington, D. C., president general, U. S. D. A. R., and Mrs. Joe T. Trigg, retiring State regent of Missouri. Receiving with Mrs. Skinner were: Mrs. S. H. Kleinschmidt, regent, and Mrs. W. C. Ramsey, with Mrs. Frank Thompson, Frank Below, William L. Greenhalgh, Frank Meade and Jas. M. Crawford.

Social Items

One of the first of the large debutante affairs of the season was the tea this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, with which Mrs. Cecil D. Gregg of Brentmoor entertained at her home in honor of her daughter, Miss Marian Gregg. Those who served were Misses Erwin Hayward, Betty and Eunice Hodgeman, Esther Capen, Hannah Jane Foley, Carol Jarvis and Anne Hitchcock.

Mrs. John Trigg Moss of 6017 Enright avenue will entertain with a tea tomorrow afternoon at her home in honor of her guests, Mrs. George E. George of Kansas City, and Mrs. W. W. Gray of Jefferson City. The guests at the tea will include members of the D. A. R. and the Daughters of 1812.

Misses Mary Jane and Virginia Bolin, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bolin of 5519 Bower avenue, will entertain with a dance Nov. 12 at Glen Echo Country Club.

Misses Helen Van Zant and Betty McGowan of Denver, who have been visiting in St. Louis for several weeks, will depart early next week for Illinois, where they will visit before returning to Colorado. They are now the guests of Mrs. Bransford Lewis of 4954 Lindell boulevard.

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander P. Thatcher of Portland, Ore., and their daughters, Misses Josephine and Elsie Thatcher, are guests at the Hotel Jefferson. They expect to remain in St. Louis about four weeks and several affairs have been planned in their honor.

An informal tea, preceded by a brief business session, will be given tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, by the Women's Union of Washington University, in McMillan Hall. A president and a treasurer are to be elected, to fill vacancies. For the former office a committee has submitted the names of Misses Elizabeth Baker, Sarah Booth, Helen Shroyck and Maria Bain-White. For treasurer, Misses Evadne Alden, Edith Rowe and Faith Young have been named by the committee as candidates.

through the Child's Welfare work. We believe that the proportion of babies being fed at the breast in St. Louis is not greater than those fed at the breast in the other large cities above mentioned, and we also do not believe that better Child Welfare work is being done in St. Louis than in these cities, and, therefore, do not believe that the argument advanced is well taken.

Anxious for Improvement.
"We do not wish to be understood as defending the milk situation in St. Louis and this department is as anxious, or more anxious, than any to see the conditions improved. To do better than we are now doing, however, will mean that an entirely adequate amount of money will have to be appropriated for milk supervision.

"At present this city has six men engaged in the milk inspection service. This force is entirely inadequate to properly supervise local dairies, ice cream plants and to supervise all incoming milk shipped to the city. "If we are compelled to not only supervise local conditions, but to supervise conditions in other States where milk is shipped to this city it is evident that a sufficient number of inspectors, with a sufficient fund for their maintenance, must be supplied, but even with such a working force we do not believe that it will be possible to deliver milk in summer to this city with a low bacterial count unless proper transportation and refrigeration facilities are provided."

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 28.—Hundreds of thousands of bushels of corn may be burned as fuel by farmers in Northern Nebraska this winter. High-priced coal and a bounteous but low-priced crop of corn is the reason. New corn, unshelled, now brings 4 of a cent a pound, or $15 a ton. The cheapest soft coal is $15, and it has to be hauled.

A wagon box 30 inches high is required to hold a ton of unshelled corn, and that amount makes a hot fire and will last longer than a ton of coal.

OPENING OF REPAVED STREET

Ceremony Nov. 6 or 13 to Mark Improvement of Washington Av.
The formal opening of the reconstructed section of Washington avenue, between Jefferson and Grand avenues, will take place Nov. 6 or 13. The ceremonies will be held when the workmen are ready to place the last wooden paving block. Addresses will be delivered by Mayor Kiel, Harry B. Hawes, E. R. Kinsey, president of the Board of Public Service, and C. M. Talbert, Director of Streets and Sewers. The ceremonies will follow an automobile parade from the city hall. The arrangements are in the hands of the Washington Avenue Property Owners' Association.

German Goods on British Market.
By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—German-made goods are being dumped into Great Britain in considerable quantities, according to a report to the Department of Commerce today from Consul Cipriani at Leeds. In the toy line especially German competition is felt, the Consul said.

2 GAME LAW VIOLATORS FINED

John Russo of 5422 Magnolia avenue and Scandura Vincenzo of 5219 Bischoff avenue were fined $25 each by a Justice of the Peace at Creve Coeur yesterday on charges of violating the Federal game law. The men were arrested by Henry Barmeter, a Federal game warden, on Sept. 6 near Creve Coeur Lake for having in their possession 13 red-winged black birds, killing of which is at all times forbidden. Representatives of the Audubon Society attended the trial and said they would take steps to break up a practice of wholesale shooting of protected birds in the vicinity of the two Creve Coeur lakes. They charged that members of certain foreign-born communities principally were doing this shooting. Costs assessed against Russo and Vincenzo amounted to $17.40 each, so that they paid a total of $42.40 apiece.

Coors PURE MALTED MILK

"As Pure as It Looks"

COORS Pure Malted Milk is of a creamy white color, the same as the rich creamy milk from which it is made. In malted milk, whiteness and purity go hand in hand. No other malted milk has this natural color of COORS.

COORS is so white because it contains nothing but full-cream, cow's milk and the soluble parts of malted barley and wheat.

Our secret process for the scientific com-binning of these elements produces a highly nutritious and palatable food, with all waste eliminated. It also gives COORS a pleasant after-taste, and makes it easy of assimilation for even the most delicate stomach.

COORS is higher in butter fat, higher in malt sugar, lower in moisture, and lower in ash content. It is a perfectly-balanced, complete food. Recommended by physicians—sold by druggists.

STILL AND RAISIN MASH SEIZED
Tytic Sposojins, 44 years old, of 1611 South Twelfth, who told the police he had changed his name to Julius Wagoner, was arrested at 4 p. m. yesterday when police and United States officials found a seven-gallon still, 50 gallons of raisin mash, a five-gallon jug and a quart of raisin whiskey on the third floor of the building at 1433 South Broadway.
He was the only one in the building at the time. He disclaimed any knowledge of the still or whiskey.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of, Parmit (double strength) and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ear, is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

Children's Coughs

may be checked and more serious conditions of the throat often will be avoided by promptly giving the child a dose of safe

How You Can Make Hairs Quickly Disappear

(Helps to Beauty)
Even a stubborn growth of hair will quickly vanish from the face, neck or arms after a single treatment with delatone. To remove hair from arms, neck or face make a stiff paste with a little powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about two minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left free from hair or blemish. To avoid disappointment, be quite certain you get real delatone and mix fresh.

REO

When Does a "Ton"-Truck Cease to be a "Ton"-Truck?

- ☐ Why, when it staggers under the load!
- ☐ Any little, lightly built truck will carry a ton—for a ways.
- ☐ A one-horse-power mule can exert a 20-horse-power pull—for a few seconds.
- ☐ A man can carry twice his own weight—for a short space.
- ☐ It's the long haul with the full load that shows up the limitations.
- ☐ The only truck that can rightfully be classed as a "ton" truck is one that can carry that load indefinitely, over all kinds of roads and with the most brutal, as well as average to fair driving.
- ☐ To do that the truck must have a momentary capacity of three or four times its rated "ton."
- ☐ That why Reo Speed Wagons are outdoing and outliving all others.
- ☐ That's why big concerns are disposing of their so-called "ton" trucks and making their fleets exclusively Reo Speed Wagons.
- ☐ Thousands of buyers have found to their cost that lightly built, low-priced cars, rated as "ton" trucks, will carry that load for a while—then they begin to go to pieces under the strain—and once they start, they do go fast!
- ☐ When it comes to trading them in for Reo Speed Wagons they are amazed to learn that the depreciation has been more than 50% in a few weeks!
- ☐ Why experiment if you can get a Reo Speed Wagon in the first place?

This Announcement Is of Vital Interest to the Entire Community

IT will affect merchandise prices for the balance of the present season. It is without precedent in the history of this establishment—and we do not desire to lay claim to any altruistic motives because of the supreme sacrifices we are making. It is merely a part of the program of our Stock Reducing Sale now in effect.

We Are Offering Without Reserve

Our Entire Stock of CLOTHING

—for Men and Boys

(On Fourth Floor)

at 25% Discount

☐ The import of this sale is not readily conceivable to the average individual. Making an absolute 25% reduction on our entire stock of Clothing in October is an unheard-of procedure. But the present conditions justify this drastic action.

☐ Many things have mitigated against the clothing business. We have been handicapped with building operations. The warm weather was another factor which had a tendency to unsettle things. The result is that, in the program of Stock Reducing Sales in effect throughout this establishment, our Clothing stock has been subjected to this price reduction.

☐ To St. Louisans this means that they can buy Fall and Winter Clothes on a price basis that has not been anticipated during the present year—in fact, the prices are being brought to practically a pre-war standard.

A $400,000 Stock of Carefully Selected Clothing of the Highest Character

It Includes Suits and Overcoats

For Men and Young Men from the "House of Kuppenheimer"

—and other reputable makers. It includes full dress suits and overcoats. It includes the renowned "Skolny" Clothes for Boys. In a word, it meets every clothing requirement, and presents a buying opportunity you cannot fail to recognize.

☐ This sale embraces everything in our Men's & Boys' Clothing Department on fourth floor but does not include our Juvenile Department for boys three to eight years of age.

Chicago Widow Declares Former Chauffeur, Trustee, Had Her Put in Sanitarium.

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Charging that she had been kidnapped and unlawfully held in an insane asylum by her former chauffeur, Thomas Davis, Mrs. Augusta J. Glendenning yesterday filed suit in Circuit Court to have Davis removed as trustee for her husband's estate, valued at more than $2,000,000. The suit also charges that Glendenning, who was president of a roofing concern, "would now be alive but for Davis."

charges with being implicated in an alleged plot to defraud her of the Glendenning estate.

Glendenning died last February in a sanitarium. He previously had been transferred from one sanitarium to another by Davis, the suit alleges, and these changes were partly responsible for his death. It is charged. Before his death, according to the suit, Davis had Palmer file a charge of insanity against Mrs. Glendenning, but it was dismissed in court and she then was kidnapped, she charges. At midnight by four men and taken to a sanitarium near Milwaukee in charge of Agnes Garrow. Dr. Neymann is alleged to have "trussed her roughly in making an examination, and signed a certificate saying she was afflicted with dementia praecox."

The bill says a question mark was placed after the medical term.

Davis was said to be a distant relative of the family, and had been employed as chauffeur. He was discharged by Mrs. Glendenning, according to the bill, and then began his alleged attempt to obtain control of the estate by attempting to damage her with her husband, and had himself made trustee of the estate.

BABLER DENIES SYMPATHY WOLFLEY'S OPPOSITION

Also Says Wolfley Is Not Agent of the International Insurance Co.

Jacob L. Babler, Republican National Committeeman and vice president of the International Life Insurance Co., today in a letter to the Post-Dispatch denied that Theodore J. Wolfley, Republican leader who is going to the National Convention at St. Louis, was an agent of the insurance company. Wolfley, who is a member of the National Committee, had been charged with being an agent of the insurance company. Babler also said that he had no connection with Wolfley's campaign against Hyde and Spencer. He said he was "unqualifiedly" a Republican and that he was "unqualifiedly" a Republican.

At the Republican State convention in Jefferson, Mo., a resolution was adopted upon the National Committee. Babler in Missouri and deal directly with the National Committee. Wolfley's aid at that time to prevent passage of the Hyde and Spencer bill, according to its adoption, time would have been State political circles to that Babler and his faction that formerly con public affairs in Missouri. He hoped for the defeat of Spencer, because of their connection with Wolfley's aid at that time.

DIG GERMAN EMIGRATION TO UNITED STATES

Only Held Back Now Because of War Existence Between Two Countries.

PARIS. Emigration many to the United States tremendous if no barrier to the latter country when permitted, according to reports of Dr. Rupert Blue, Surgeon General of the United States Health Service, upon whom American doctors is the responsibility of medically examining the Germans who wish to come to the United States. The Germans wish to come to the United States because of the high cost of living in Germany and the heavy taxes that will be many years to come.

Wholesale emigration many to the United States is now being held back because the two countries are still technically at war. The German government is still technically at war with the United States. The German government is still technically at war with the United States.

BENEFITS OF SHIPPING BY WATER ARE SHOWN

C. of C. Issues Bulletin on New Rates to Pacific Coast Cities.

Further benefits of a water shipping route between St. Louis and the cities of the Pacific Coast, which has been established by the issuance of a through tariff by the Government River Service, which is the barge line on the Mississippi River between St. Louis and New Orleans.
are noted in a bulletin sent to shippers today by the traffic department of the Chamber of Commerce. The tariff became effective last Monday.

In announcing recently that it would be forthcoming, the Post-Dispatch called attention to the fact that St. Louis shippers now could reach the Pacific Coast through the Panama Canal as cheaply as does
New York. New York has established a supremacy in many lines of business on the West coast because of its cheap water route.

The Traffic Bureau bulletin now recites advantages which the new route give to St. Louis shippers over Chicago shippers as follows on rates
to San Francisco:

Chicago (rail).	St. Louis (water).	Difference.
1.00	.75	.25
2.00	1.50	.50
3.00	2.25	.75
4.00	3.00	1.00
5.00	3.75	1.25

Further application of the rates
shows that St. Louis can send leverage in carload lots to the west coast
at $1.40, compared with Chicago rate of $1.83, a saving to St.
Louis of 43 cents per 100 pounds.
Similarly, St. Louis can reach the west coast with boots and shoes at a rate 83 cents below the Chicago rate. The saving over Chicago in cotton piece goods in carloads is 35 cents, and in less than carloads, 58 cents. The differential on drugs is 47 and 62 cents.

BABLER DENIES SYMPATHY WITH WOLFLEY'S OPPOSITION TO HYDE

Also Says Wolfley Is Not a Loan Agent of the International Life Insurance Co.

Jacob A. Babler, Republican National Committee member from Missouri and vice president of the International Life Insurance Co., today in a letter to the Post-Dispatch denied that Theodore J. Wolfley, a Republican leader who recently announced that he is going to support
Arthur M. Hyde, nominee for Governor, and Senator Spencer, is a loan agent of the insurance company. He said that Wolfley formerly represented persons who submitted farm
plans, but that he has no connection
whatever with the concern now.

Babler also said that he has no connection with Wolfley's movement against Hyde and Spencer and said he "is unqualifiedly for the Republican ticket from President to Governor."

At the Republican State platform convention in Jefferson City Sept.
10, a resolution was adopted calling on the National Committee to ignore Babler in Missouri Republican affairs and deal directly with the State Committee. Wolfley went to St. Louis at that time and tried to prevent passage of the measure, said Babler. Babler offered no opposition to its adoption. Since that time, gossip has been current in State political circles to the effect that Babler and his friends of the faction that formerly controlled Republican affairs in Missouri, secretly hoped for the defeat of Hyde and Spencer, because of their failure to come to Babler's aid at that time.

GERMAN EMIGRATION TO UNITED STATES COMING

Only Held Back Now Because State of War Exists Between Two Countries.

PARIS.—Emigration from Germany to the United States will be immense if no barrier is raised by the latter country when peace is finally achieved, according to reports received here. Dr. Rupert Blue, Surgeon-General of the United States Public Health Service, upon whose staff of American doctors is the responsibility of medically examining every emigrant bound for America.

The Germans wish to emigrate, according to Dr. Blue's reports, because of the high cost of living and the heavy taxes that will be levied for many years to come.

Wholesale emigration from Germany to the United States is impossible now because the two countries are still technically at war, but Commissioner Drosel at Berlin is allowing a maximum of 25 German subjects weekly.

OPPOSITION TO BAN ON SOCIETIES IN SCHOOLS

Interfraternity Council to Meet Tonight to Consider Action in Matter

The Interfraternity Council, comprising representatives of fraternities in St. Louis high schools, has determined to combat a regulation of the Board of Education forbidding any high school pupil membership in a fraternity or sorority. The council has enlisted considerable support among parents of high school boys and girls and has named several to membership on a committee which is to meet tonight to determine what form opposition to the regulation shall take. There are about 400 high school pupils affected.

Dr. John W. Withers, Superintendent of Instruction in the public schools, was asked today to state the reasons for the Board of Education regulation adopted in January against fraternity membership. He first gave to the reporter a card which has been distributed among high school pupils, which on one side gives space for signature of pupil to a statement that he is not a member and will not become a member of any secret organization.

The other side bears a copy of the board's regulation:

"Secret organizations in the high schools are undemocratic and undesirable and injurious to the free and wholesome life of these schools. They exert a pernicious influence upon their own members and upon pupils who do not belong to them, and upon the voluntary organizations of pupils that are approved and fostered by the schools, and they are subversive of the fundamental principles upon which the public schools rest.

"It is therefore recommended that the Board of Education declare itself as opposed to their existence in the schools and forbid the pupils of the high schools to form or join such organizations or to continue to be members of them if they have already joined.

Objections to Societies.

The regulation was recommended to the board by Dr. Withers. He was asked to state further his objection to fraternities and sororities. He gave to the reporter a copy of a report of a special investigating committee of the National Education Committee whose recommendation against fraternities and sororities was adopted by the association in 1905. In that report the following were quoted as objections to fraternities which the committee regarded as sound: (1) they are unnecessary; (2) they are factional; (3) they are not administered with sufficient judgment; (4) they are unjust to nonmembers; (5) they dissipate energy and ambition; (6) they set wrong standards of excellence; (7) they are narrow; (8) they base honors on fraternity vows, not on work; (9) they cultivate the mysterious and hidden; (10) they inculcate undue self-importance; (11) they contain boys too young for club life; (12) they foster smoking and other bad habits; (13) they are expensive; (14) the character of membership varies from year to year.

No Date Set for Compliance. Dr. Withers said that no date has been set for compliance with the board's regulation. "We do not mean to force the issue by saying that if on a certain date any student has not complied with the rule a penalty will follow," Dr. Withers said. "That would be unwise."

A special meeting of the Solder High School Parents' Association has been called for tomorrow night to discuss the regulation. At the last meeting of the Association, the board's action was criticized by parents who have children who are fraternity and sorority members. Several said that they believed that the board had exceeded its authority in dictating the conduct of pupils out of school hours.

BIBLE QUOTED IN SUPPORT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Man, Who Has Voted Republican Ticket for 51 Years, Supports Cox.

Emanuel S. Morris of 1125 Chambers street, 73 years old, who says he has voted the Republican ticket for 51 years, has written to the Post-Dispatch that he will vote for Gov. Cox on account of the League of Nations at the coming election.

In his letter he gives quotations from the Old and the New Testaments in support of the ideal of universal peace, and says: "We hear these things preached in all the churches. Men claim to be Christians and claim to be Jews, and yet the very first opportunity that has been presented to both the Christian and the Jew to see the ideal of the Jewish prophets and the founder of Christianity, they turn their backs upon it and say: 'We will have none of it.'"

Receiver for Auto Parts Firm. Harry C. Barker, an attorney, was appointed yesterday by Federal Judge Parls as receiver for the E. F. Long Auto Parts Co., 1915-17 Pine street. The appointment of a receiver was asked for by the petitioning creditors for the protection of valuable contract rights owned by the company. The company is said to have assets of approximately $50,000. The creditors allege their indebtedness exceeds $30,000.

Pneumonic Influenza in Nauru. MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 28.—There was a serious outbreak of pneumonic influenza in the island of Nauru last month. Up to Sept. 14 70 natives had died, while half of the colored population of 12,000 and about 30 whites out of the white population of 100 were affected. A doctor and two nurses were sent from Australia to the island, with which communication is rare and irregular.

The

IMMEDIATE FUTURE OF GERMANY DARK, CHANCELLOR SAYS

Fehrenbach, However, Declares He Does Not Believe His Country Will Fall a Victim to Bolshevism.

THINKS COMMON SENSE WILL PREVAIL

Asserts Situation Is Rendered Extremely Difficult by Delivery of Coal to Allies Vital to Own Industries.

BY CYRIL BROWN.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.
BERLIN, Oct. 27.—Chancellor Fehrenbach does not believe Germany will fall a victim to Bolshevism. In an exclusive interview given to the correspondent on the eve of the opening of the Reichstag, the Chancellor said:

"Your question touches the inner political problem which results from the recent formation of the 'new Communist' party under such sensational circumstances at Halle. Little as I misunderstand or underestimate the seriousness of the decision reached at Halle, I still hope and believe that the healthy, common sense of the German people, particularly of the German working man, will, in the long run, be able to resist the seductive 'Pied Piper of Hamelin,' and the tunes of foreign agitators.

Believes in German People.
"I believe, too, that the bulk of the German people will not let their heads be turned by the inflammatory agitation of visionaries who try to build Potemkin villages and conjure up Utopian air castles for the German people. Particularly, after German workers on their visit to Russia learned from personal experience on their own bodies the 'blessings' of the Soviet regime, I cannot believe that German workmen still harbor any desire to drive out the devil of present day German misery with the Beelzebub of Bolshevism.

"Regarding the questions of the immediate future, which is big with fate for Germany," Chancellor Fehrenbach continued, "the impending debate in the Reichstag will bring out all the problems which most deeply stir the German people, their parliamentary representatives and their Government.

"The immediate future lies dark before us. With the utmost anxiety we face the annihilation, consequences of the agreement regarding coal we made at Spa, which we have conscientiously observed and fulfilled. Already we have been forced to withdraw coal, vital to our industries, to such an extent that many plants have been closed down and the number of unemployed grows from week to week. This unemployment, with its detrimental effect on the internal order and quiet of the country, causes us particularly heavy care.

"To it is added the crippling of transportation, because of the withdrawal of coal, which in turn, reacts dangerously on the feeding of the German people by increasing the shortage and the high cost of food. Our difficult situation is rendered even worse by the threat to make us give up 800,000 milch cows. If this is forced upon us the shortage of milk, which is already alarming and endangers the whole juvenile generation of Germany will be increased to a pitch almost unbearable.

Gigantic Budget Deficits.
"Regarding our remarkable catastrophic financial situation I need not waste words. The budget submitted by the Finance Ministers of the Reich, and the Federal states speak most clearly and horrifyingly with their gigantic deficits. In this connection I must not fail to point out, however, that, in view of the conscientiousness with which we have fulfilled all of our treaty obligations, we believe that we are justified in expecting our treaty opponents that they, for their part, will fulfill the pledges made to us regarding a new conference for the final settlement of the all-dominating question. On this, in the last analysis, likewise depends our ability to make reparation.

"What we need to cure our serious shaken and sick body politic, is, above all, internal peace and order; and whoever has an interest in the reconstruction of Europe must share this wish.

"Germany wishes to live in peace and solidarity with all peoples. And if we can calculate on the intelligent sympathies of those circles abroad, who, above and beyond all differences, cherish the welfare of all humanity at heart, it will prove a permanent blessing for the work of the reconstruction of the world, which is bleeding from a thousand wounds.

"In this work Germany now, as before, is firmly determined to do her part."

Elmer Rempy, 12 years old, of 1504 North Twenty-third street, suffered a fractured leg and internal injuries at 5 p. m. yesterday when struck by an automobile driven by George Holtgrewe, 4944 Spalding avenue, when he was playing football in an alley on Twentieth street between O'Fallon street and Cass avenue. Holtgrewe was driving through the alley. He told the police the boy stepped backwards in the path of the machine.

Anthony Riegart, 3, of 3101 Alfred avenue, and his brother, Eugene, 27, were cut and bruised when their automobile was overturned in collision with an automobile driven by William Keller, 431 Wilmington road, in front of 2232 South Jefferson avenue.

Charles Brown, 16, of 1822 Pack street, was cut and bruised on the face and arm when riding on a truck which collided with another

He told policemen he had been struck by an automobile near Maplewood and had been put aboard a street car by the driver and had been assisted from the car at the station.

OLD CLOTHES DEALER ROBBED
Jacob Crossman, 44 years old, of 1719 Carr street, a dealer in old clothes, was driving through an alley north of Botanical avenue at 2 p. m. yesterday when a man called him into a basement of an apartment house at 4205 Botanical avenue under the pretext that he had some old clothing to sell.

When they reached the basement the man pointed a revolver at Crossman and ordered him to put up his hands. Crossman tried to take the revolver away and in the struggle the weapon was discharged, inflicting a flesh wound on Crossman's hand. The robber then took $22 from Crossman's pocket and escaped before a janitor, attracted by the shot, arrived.

HARDING SPENDS DAY RESTING IN AKRON TONIGHT

Candidate's Voice in Good Condition Despite Four Speeches to Cleveland Audiences Last Night.

FEW REAR PLATFORM ADDRESSES IN OHIO

Nominee and Mrs. Harding Now Riding in Compartment Car Spending Nights at Hotels.

By the Associated Press. CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 28.—Senator Harding, who opened his first campaign swing last night with four speeches to Cleveland audiences, spent most of today quietly at a hotel here, resting and conferring with local Republican leaders.

An automobile ride and a luncheon at the Cleveland Country Club were the only engagements on the nominee's program before his departure in the afternoon for Akron, where he is to speak tonight.

Despite the demands made on him at last night's meetings, Harding's voice was in good condition and the cold which had threatened to handicap him in his public speaking had almost disappeared. "It was said, however, that he probably would make few rear-platform speeches during the remainder of his trip through Ohio, conserving his voice for the larger audiences."

For the first time since he began his campaign trips the Senator is traveling without a private car, he and Mrs. Harding riding in one of the compartment cars which previously had been used by other members of the party. It was said, however, that the private car was abandoned because of the short runs to be made and because each night spent away from Marion is to be spent at a hotel.

Paying tribute to Theodore Roosevelt and William McKinley as authors of a new era of national development, Senator Harding told a crowd in Gray's Anatomy hall that his ambition was to perpetuate the spirit of untried and untried nationalism, which he said they had awakened.

Praises Roosevelt. Recalling that yesterday was the anniversary of Roosevelt's birth, the nominee declared the Roosevelt policies had brought to the United States "a new conscience and a new doctrine that all rights must be founded upon obligations and a fundamental sense of fair play."

Aluding to the alarm of the day, he said that Harding, who had been elected, the Democrats would vote under the claims for Charles E. Hughes in the election. He said that he had no far to fall, but that he was confident that the Republicans claimed that he was elected.

He said that he was confident that the Republicans claimed that he was elected, and that he was confident that the Republicans claimed that he was elected.

He said that he was confident that the Republicans claimed that he was elected, and that he was confident that the Republicans claimed that he was elected.

Harding Answers Question as to Taft and Johnson

CLEVELAND, Oct. 28.—In his speech here yesterday, Senator Harding declared his stand on the league issue had been consistent from the start and that "the only change of position I've taken is in the imagination of those who do not know what they want to do."

"Do you stand with Senator Johnson or with Mr. Taft?" asked a man in the crowd. "I'm happy to answer that question," replied the Senator. "I've just been telling you of my belief in representative government. As a candidate for President, I don't ask Senator Johnson to agree with me. That's the thing I'm rebelling against. And I don't ask Mr. Taft to agree with me. But I do think I've made one contribution to American politics. I've brought Mr. Johnson and Mr. Taft closer together than they ever were in their lives before."

COX ATTITUDE ON TEACHING GERMAN IN OHIO EXPLAINED

Republican Legislature Passed Law Barring German as Study in Lower Grades. Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Information which reached Democratic headquarters here concerning propaganda circulated in German and Catholic communities as to Gov. Cox's attitude toward the teaching of German in parochial schools has resulted in the committee making public the facts, which are as follows:

The present Republican Legislature of Ohio passed a law requiring that English should be the primary language taught in Ohio schools and prohibiting the teaching of German in the elementary grades. The law, however, permits the teaching of German or any other language in the upper grades. Gov. Cox signed this bill. German textbooks which idealized the Kaiser and German militarism and made no mention of American institutions were barred from Ohio schools by this legislation.

The newly appointed committee, comprising representatives of the various posts in the city, ratified all acts of the temporary committee, which has been in operation since July, and has begun plans for the American Legion Fall Festival which is to be held at the Coliseum the week of Dec. 6.

MANY EUROPEAN CHILDREN TO TASTE SWEETS FOR FIRST TIME

Two and One-Fifth Pounds of Sugar to Be Placed in Relief Packages After Nov. 1. By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Many European children, born during the lean war years, will enjoy the taste of sweets next Christmas for the first time in their lives, as a result of price declines in this country.

Because of lower costs, the American Relief Administration announced today it could add two and one-fifth pounds of sugar and one pound of cocoa to all 10 packages bought with Hoover food drafts beginning Nov. 1. This largesse is expected to create a gastronomic sensation when Santa Claus fills the Yuletide stockings of Central and Eastern Europe.

The food drafts, purchasable in 500 banks in America, can be drawn to an individual in Europe or to the relief administration.

COX HAS SPIRITED DEBATE WITH A MAN IN AUDIENCE

Former Teacher Asks About Moral Obligation and Governor Says Conscience Would Determine Action.

RECEPTION IN HIS OLD HOME TOWN

Women Moved to Tears in Discussion of War; Plans for Remainder of Campaign Announced.

By the Associated Press. DAYTON, O., Oct. 28.—Whether or not the American Congress would be bound morally to adopt recommendations from the League of Nations was discussed yesterday by Gov. Cox, during a demonstrative day spent in his home communities, including Middletown, O., his boyhood home, and last night in his home city.

The question of a moral obligation was asked by a man in an audience at Middletown. Without giving a "yes or no" answer, Gov. Cox declared there would be no legal obligation upon the United States, but "the presumption is the conscience of the world will determine some action which will not only be right but which will be effective." He added that the Monroe Doctrine had been maintained without the firing of a shot, and he favored a Hitchcock reservation declaring Congress should be free to accept or reject league advice as to employing American military force.

Gov. Cox made five speeches, mostly devoted to the League of Nations. After two addresses at Middletown, the Governor spoke to a woman's audience at Eagle's Hall tonight, to another audience at Memorial Hall and to a large overflow meeting outside. A red torchlight procession, containing numerous bands and hundreds of persons in marching clubs, preceded last night's rallies, of which fireworks were a feature.

Moral Obligation Discussed. Discussion of moral obligations under the league was first during the Governor's campaigning and was broached by a stranger in the Governor's Middletown audience. It was said the man, who stated that at one time he had taught school, refused to give his reply. He and Gov. Cox held a spirited, but friendly joint debate.

The incident caused the Governor to relate other circumstances of the campaign in which, he said, "hecklers" and other means had been used by Chairman Hays in attempts at embarrassment.

Gov. Cox also continued hot fire in all yesterday's speeches against Senator Harding, reiterating that the Senator was "wiggling and wobbling" upon the league issue and trying to secure election "under false pretenses." The Governor reiterated that a "great wave" of league sentiment was sweeping the nation.

When he reiterated the contention that Congress only had power to declare war, "in or out of the league," and that the league Council was limited solely to advice, the Governor's questioner interjected: "The President would advise Congress as to the recommendations of the Council. Would not that morally bind Congress?"

Hitchcock Reservation. "It is very distinctly stated," the Governor replied, "in one of the Hitchcock reservations, we undertake nothing which binds the United States to go to war because it had no power to make such an arrangement under the limitation under the Constitution. This covenant of the league is based upon the idea civilization has had a lesson and this covenant is simply a bet on the morality of the world. You say to me, 'How do I know moral force will be sufficient?' I will give you a historic precedent. Isn't the covenant of the league internationally precisely what the Monroe Doctrine is on this continent? What is behind the Monroe Doctrine except our moral force? Have we ever had to fire a shot in 100 years to maintain it?"

"That doesn't answer my question," The Governor's questioner interrupted. "Well, then, I will answer it in another way," the candidate resumed. "What you have in your mind is this: 'What will lay upon the conscience of the world in the face of a grave, world wide disorder?'"

"The presumption is that the conscience of every nation will determine some action which will not only be right, but which will be effective."

Gov. Cox then read the Hitchcock reservation and asked: "Does that answer it?"

Repeats His Question. "Will the recommendation of the council," the Governor's interrogator pressed, "bind the Congress morally?"

ST. LOUIS COUNTY CANDIDATES AND THEIR RECORDS

List Includes Two for Senate, Three for House and Four for Judgeships of County Court.

REPUBLICANS REGARD ELECTION AS ASSURED

Only Five Democrats Have Made Active Campaign—National Ticket Gets Committee's Support.

St. Louis County voters, at Thursday's election, will vote for a State Senator from the Twenty-fifth Senatorial District, which includes also Franklin and Gasconade Counties, and will elect two Representatives in the Legislature, two Judges of the County Court for full terms and one for an unexpired term, and the following county officials: Recorder of Deeds (for unexpired term), Prosecuting Attorney, Sheriff, Assessor, Treasurer, Surveyor, Public Administrator and Coroner. Township Constables will be elected and Justices of the Peace in Kirkwood and Webster Groves.

The Judges of the County Court are elected by districts, and the unexpired term, as well as a full term, is to be filled in the First District. Two Representatives in the Legislature are also elected by districts.

Few Made Active Campaign. The Republican candidates for these offices consider their election assured. Only five of the candidates on the Democratic ticket have made anything like an active campaign. The Democratic County Committee, in five caucuses, has received no letters to its letter sent to Democratic candidates, and one such letter was returned to the committee, postal employees having failed to locate the man. The Socialist party has nominated a complete ticket in the county, and the Farmer-Workers party has put up six candidates.

Under the circumstances, the Democratic County Committee is giving its energies chiefly to the support of the national and State tickets. A Democratic vote in St. Louis County for presidential electors, Governor or State officers is just as valuable as a vote anywhere else in the State.

Richard F. Ralph, Republican, Valley Park. Now completing third term as Prosecuting Attorney; record considered good. Represented the county in suits instituted by T. K. Skinner, in which the validity of the $3,000,000 bond issue for good roads was attacked. The United States Supreme Court upheld the bonds. Was supported by Fred E. Eason, Republican boss of the county, for senatorial nomination, and defeated Senator A. E. L. Gardner in the August primary by a large margin.

Robert C. Powell, Democrat, Kirkwood. City Attorney of Kirkwood, has law office in St. Louis. Is making active campaign on basis of opposition to Eason's domination of county government.

REPRESENTATIVES. First District. E. McD. Stevens, Republican, Vinita Park. Opposed only by Socialist nominee, who is Samuel Rayburn.

Second District. George F. Hege, Republican, Kirkwood. Lawyer. Member last Legislature. Introduced bill to permit school districts to increase their tax levy from 40 cents to $1 on the $100 valuation for school improvement. Opposed to annexation.

Henry Wessels, Democrat Affton. Inactive as candidate; county committee has no information about him.

COUNTY COURT. (This so-called court is not a judicial body, but a board of supervisors, with authority over improvements and county expenditures.)

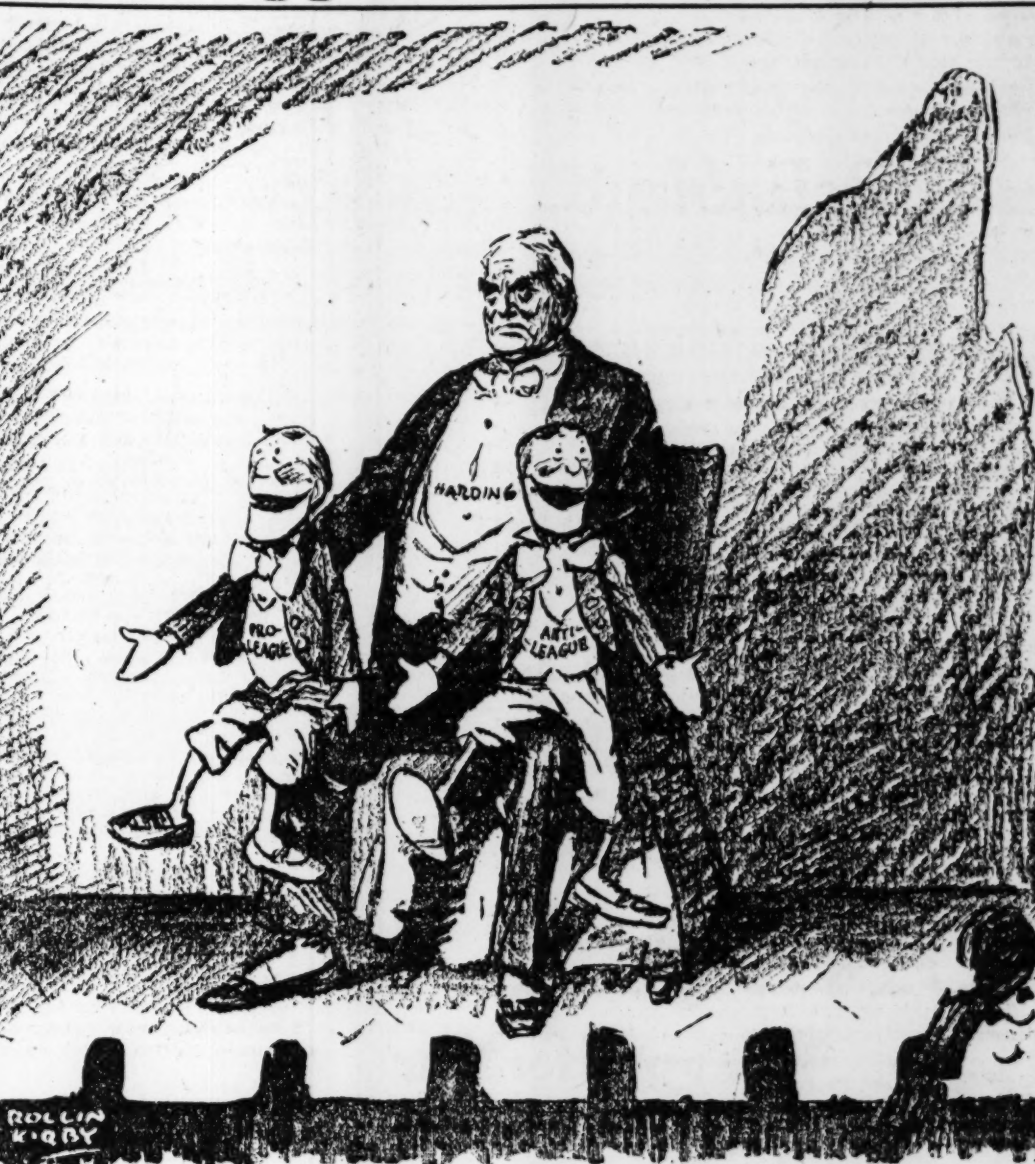

Fred Sullie, Republican, Weston. Was sexton of Bethania Cemetery from 1906 to 1918. Is a large stockholder in the Weston Bank, and has been president of the Central Township Farmers' Club for 20 years. For the unexpired term in the first district, Henry Schulz is the Republican nominee.

Raymond A. Walsh, Democrat, University City. Now a member of the board of appointment of Gov. Gardner, and is running both for the unexpired term and the full term. Educated in Christian Brothers' College, in Harvard University and in Italy. Former managing editor of St. Louis Times. Is secretary-manager of Federated Council of Good Roads, directing the State-wide campaign for the $60,000,000 bond issue. His knowledge of road problems is of value in view of the road work pending in the county.

Second District. J. William Shields, Republican, Incumbent. Pond. Active in politics 21 years. Has made good record.

RESOLUTION FOR BRIDGE RATE INQUIRY HELD IMPRACTICABLE

Danes Says Secretary of War Has No Jurisdiction Over Eads Structure, Built in 1868.

City Counselor Danes said today that the resolution adopted by the Board of Aldermen last Friday, calling upon him to ask the Secretary of War to investigate the increased rates recently announced by the Terminal Railroad Association for transportation across the Eads Bridge, is impracticable because the Secretary of War has no jurisdiction over Eads Bridge.

The law giving the Secretary of War jurisdiction over interstate bridges was passed in March, 1906, Danes said, and applied only to bridges constructed after that time, whereas the Eads Bridge was built in 1868.

Danes said that he would look further into the matter to see if the Interstate Commerce Commission can do anything, or whether the Public Service Commissions of Illinois and Missouri have any voice in the toll rates on Eads Bridge.

CAIRO TO BE NORTH TERMINAL OF GOVERNMENT RIVER SERVICE

Low Water Will Stop Operations From St. Louis—Freight to Go From Here by Rail.

The northern terminal operation of the Government River Service, which is the barge line on the Mississippi River between St. Louis and New Orleans, will be removed to Cairo, Ill., after the next towalling from St. Louis, probably next week.

Operation on the river between St. Louis and Cairo is impossible for a short period each year, usually about six weeks, because of ice. Water between St. Louis and Cairo now is abnormally low, making operation difficult. For this reason the removal to Cairo is taking place before the freezing period. Freight will be accepted in St. Louis under the usual terms, sent to Cairo by rail and there transhipped to the barges, which transship St. Louis shippers will not lose the benefits of cheap water transportation, although the actual sailings will not be from this point.

COOLIDGE IN NEW YORK TODAY By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—An old-time torchlight parade up Fifth avenue tonight will feature the culmination of a day's campaigning here by Gov. Calvin Coolidge, Republican vice presidential nominee.

Charles H. Sherrill, grand marshal of the parade, declared there would be 75,000 marchers and 100 bands in line. Gov. Coolidge will occupy the place of honor in the reviewing stand at the Union League Club. The nominee later will make an address at Carnegie Hall.

County Political Meetings

Voters of Central Township, St. Louis County, will meet at the courthouse in Clayton at 8 o'clock tonight to hear an explanation of the 13 constitutional amendments and two other propositions to be voted on Nov. 2, and discussions on the League of Nations. The Woman's Republican Club of Luxembourg, St. Louis County, will meet at the Hoffman House, 280 Lemay Ferry road, at 7 o'clock tonight to hear an address by Congressman Newton.

G. O. P. REQUEST TO CORPORATIONS FOR FUNDS CITED

Letter Given Out by Democratic Chairman Said to Have Been Sent by Michigan Collector.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Portions of a circular letter, said to have been sent to directors of corporations by an official of the Republican National Committee, were made public here last night by George White, chairman of the Democratic National Committee. White declared the letter bids to pay Gov. Cox's charge that Republicans would "sell out to the corporations."

White's statement follows: "A circular letter sent to directors of corporations by Charles E. Warren, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the Republican National Committee, has come to my attention. The contents of this letter will convince all who have any remaining doubt that the Republican National Committee is prepared to sell out the United States of America to the corporations if Senator Harding is elected. This is a grave charge, but it is borne out by the contents of Mr. Warren's letter."

"Under date of Oct. 20, 1920, in addressing directors of corporations, he writes: 'Will you, therefore, determine promptly what the value of Republican success means to you and your corporate interests? Make your financial pledge accordingly and mail the enclosed card with remittance to the Detroit office today.'"

"The signature of Mr. Warren is not only printed on this letter, but it is signed in ink over the printed name. The letter is written on the stationery of the Republican Ways and Means Committee, which bears the name of the committee officials also."

"No more sordid document nor one more corroborative of Gov. Cox's charge that certain corporations are trying to buy an underling in the Government has come to light in this campaign."

"There is another phase of Mr. Warren's letter bearing out the Democratic charge. Remember, it is dated Oct. 20, 1920, two days after the Republican National Committee reported an expenditure of over three millions of dollars. Mr. Warren writes: 'Through overconfidence or inertia on the part of Republican business men, a substantial portion of the campaign expense is still unpaid by the average citizen expected to be an administration sold out in advance?'"

ARGUMENTS FOR RECOGNITION OF 'IRISH REPUBLIC' BEFORE COLBY

Secretary of State Tells Delegation of Sympathizers He Will Study Report Made.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Arguments favoring recognition of the new republic of Ireland were formally presented to Secretary Colby at the State Department last night by a delegation of Irish sympathizers, headed by Frank P. Walsh, former joint chairman with William Howard Taft of the War Labor Board.

Secretary Colby listened without comment but cautioned the chairman when reference was made to Emmet de Valera as "President" of Ireland, that, as Secretary of State, he could hear them only on the understanding that they were there as citizens and not as representatives of officials of the Irish people.

"Oh, we demand recognition, not as a favor," said Walsh, "but as a right. The Irish republic is now established a de jure and de facto Government. Its stability and representative character are attested by the endorsement of the ballots of 90 per cent of the Irish people. The courts of the Irish republic are functioning daily and their decisions are respected by the entire population."

Colby told the committee when its presentation was concluded that he would study the stenographic report that was taken.

ROADS, LIKE WAY TO HEAVEN, DIFFICULT, SAYS ARCHBISHOP

Rabbi Harrison Also in Favor of $60,000,000 Appropriation to Improve Missouri Highways. Archbishop Glennon and Rabbi Harrison have expressed themselves in favor of good roads for Missouri, for which a constitutional amendment appropriating $60,000,000 will be submitted to the voters next Tuesday.

In explaining that he would be unable to attend the good roads mass meeting to be held at the Twelfth street plaza Saturday because he has confirmation classes in several parishes that day, Archbishop Glennon said: "The roads to the towns I am to visit are, like the way to heaven, difficult. I am in favor of good roads."

Rabbi Harrison said: "Without good roads there can be no civilization, no means of carrying the children to school or bringing worshipers to country churches, or of ending the intolerable solitude of farm life in winter weather."

M'ADOO TO SPEAK IN E. ST. LOUIS

William G. McAdoo will deliver an address Saturday night in the East St. Louis City Hall auditorium, under auspices of the Democratic organization. The address will follow his talk in St. Louis.

Arrangements are being made for a parade of railroad and former service men, and addresses will be delivered by candidates and other prominent local Democrats, until the arrival of McAdoo.

150 Tons of Ballots in New York

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—By nightfall next Tuesday—election day—150 tons of ballots will have been stuffed into the ballot boxes of New York City. This estimate was made today by the Board of Elections, which announced that 6,500,000 ballots, three for each of the 1,257,325 qualified voters, have been printed at a cost for printing alone, of $200,000.

GOV. COX AGAIN ATTACKS SATURDAY EVENING POST

Declares Publication Sought to Prosper by Unfair Means and Government Forced It to Cease Illegal Acts.

"INSIDIOUS PURPOSE" BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Declares Magazine as 'Household Journal' Has Been 'Cloaked Under Nonpartisan Methods for Past Decade.'

By the Associated Press. DAYTON, O., Oct. 28.—Another statement charging the Saturday Evening Post and its editor, George Horace Lorimer, with unfair partisanship was issued today by Gov. Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate.

"The insidious purpose of the Saturday Evening Post, cloaked under nonpartisan methods for the past decade and more, has finally been brought to light," Gov. Cox declared, stating that it had made misstatements only four days before election when it was impossible to correct them.

That the Curtis Publishing Co. had been found guilty by the Federal Trade Commission of violating the anti-trust laws by unfair practices in distributing its periodical was asserted by Gov. Cox, declaring that "big business" was opposed to him because he would give it "a square deal and nothing more."

Gov. Cox's Statement. The Governor's statement follows: "When early in the week I called attention to the guerrilla tactics of the Saturday Evening Post on the basis of its last-minute attack on me, the response of Mr. Lorimer, its editor, was that my action was unethical. I am perfectly willing to leave the decision on ethics to the voters of America, and I am sure whom have been life-time readers of the Saturday Evening Post and who, from the time of its origin, have looked upon it as a household journal, to which they rendered devotion because it took no part in partisan campaigns."

"The question of ethics would seem to lie in what America has learned to look upon as a square deal; and when a nonpartisan journal becomes partisan in its very last issue four days before an election at a time when it is impossible for misstatements to be corrected or deleted to meet it—would seem to indicate a very deep-seated selfish interest based upon some purpose which could scarcely be called straight-forward and honest. No man who represents a just cause has any objections to presenting both sides of the case."

Questions for Lorimer. "In my statement I charged interior interests. Since Mr. Lorimer has seen fit to reply simply in a way that raises the question of ethics, I would like to direct to him the plain question: Is his interest in this election which brings the unusual set of partisan support from his paper based upon the desire for a return to 'normalcy' under which his publication sought to prosper by unfair methods?"

"Is it because the Curtis Publishing Co. was found guilty of the use of unfair and illegal methods of competition and violation of the anti-trust law prohibiting any certain 'tying-end' contracts and of violation of the Federal Trade Commission ruling?"

Based upon the fact that the Curtis Publishing Co. made contracts with wholesale distributors which prevented them from handling other publications without permission from the Curtis Publishing Co. and which prohibited the sale of all competing publications?"

"The plan of the Curtis Publishing Co. was with the intent and had the effect of largely increasing the circulation of Curtis publications and unfairly decreasing to the detriment of the Curtis Publishing Co. the circulation of competing publications to the extent that the Curtis Publishing Co. would derive large advertising rates by reasons of tremendous circulation."

Charges Unfair Practices. "These unfair practices prevented competing publishers from obtaining distribution of their publication through the ordinary distributing channels and forced them to distribute through channels which did not have facilities for a wide distribution. Proof for these unfair practices was found by the Federal Trade Commission after extensive hearings, on July 21, 1919, and the Curtis Publishing Co. was forced to cease and desist."

"Here is the harm of the reaction: any desire for return to normalcy. The protection of the anti-trust law is insufficient, but the Federal Trade Commission has authority to investigate the facts and to issue rulings thereon. Every unfair business practice is a crime."

Today's gown demands perfectly fitting underwear

ASKIRT a yard and a quarter wide. A bodice that fits one smoothly, front and back. Sleeves that hug the arm from shoulder to wrist.

That is the way today's gown is made—without regard for what must be worn under it.

And yet one must wear underwear. The weather is just as capricious as it was in the days when gowns were built generously. Only today one has underwear that fits just as snugly and smoothly as one's clinging gown.

Carter's Knit Underwear has followed the changing styles in women's gowns. Its cut is so perfect, its texture so fine and soft, yet elastic, its finishing so carefully done, that even under the sleekest, scantiest skirt there is no line at knee or ankle. Under the most closely fitting bodice there is no bunching across the back, no ruffling at neck or armhole.

There is a Carter undergarment for every type of gown: street dress, afternoon or evening frock. At your favorite store you can see the many styles in Carter's Underwear. Order your season's supply now, for all the family. In cotton, lisle, silk, merino and wool—in all weights.

THE WILLIAM CARTER COMPANY
Needham Heights (Boston District)
and Springfield, Mass.

The double crocheted shell edging is found only in Carter suits. This charming finish gives a little festive look to even the most practical suit.

There are so many reasons for having children wear Carter's. The strong, flat seams, the reinforced buttonholes, the buttons that do not pull off. And Carter suits never wash up stiff and matted, never get harsh and prickly.

To wear under the new evening frocks, a Carter bodice-top suit of sheerest silk or lisle is just light and soft enough. It comes with a plain band edge or with the Carter double crocheted edging. It is so shaped that it will not wrinkle under corset or brassiere. And the delicate shoulder ribbons do not show, even with a sleeveless gown.

ica; I mean the development, the growth and the flowering of our nation's soul.

"It was the wisdom and the leadership of William McKinley which founded a new era of American advancement. It was under his leadership that wise American policies lifted us into new good fortune and permanent gain as a thriving, eager producing nation, acquiring new commercial strength, founding a new industrial life, weaving a new network of transportation, creating opportunity for mankind.

McKinley Planted Flag.
"It was McKinley who planted the flag abroad and gave America's first bestowal of our standards of freedom, with new glory to the republic. It was Roosevelt who brought to this glorious America a new conscience and a stalwart doctrine that all rights must be founded upon obligations and the realization of man's duty to himself and to his fellow man. It was Roosevelt who brought to the weak, which never forgot justice to the strong, a fundamental sense of fair play, an appreciation of mercy and tenderness, and an enduring faith in the righteousness of men and women.

"Men and women love him and women will forever love him, not merely because he had loved them and had eternal faith in their capacity to reach new heights in spiritual achievement, but because he avowed in them his own faith—because he taught them to have faith in their own consciences and their own righteousness. So this new America of ours should have an unparalleled sense of integrity, an unparalleled desire for service and an unparalleled capacity to show the world that mercy and justice can go hand in hand. To America, Roosevelt, ever ready to dedicate himself in the fullness of his body, his mind and his spirit, gave a new conscience. I would be insensible to the call of a noble purpose which any man or woman, no matter how humble, may hear if he will listen. I would be lacking in imagination for high attainment if I do not say with all the sincerity there is in me, that I see before us another great work to do.

"World Calls on America."
"Now the world in anguish calls to America for a new contribution. It calls for that understanding among peoples and nations, which shall draw all together into harmony and unity; which shall ally contentions and conflicts, which shall remove ignorance and prejudice.

"I want my chance to lead in making America a land where men and women place the welfare of America above their own selfish interests; where no class distinctions can arise because men's minds understand other men's hearts and aspirations; where the strong serve all of us to the end that all of us may serve the weak. I want in years to come to dedicate myself to bringing all American men and women into a brotherhood of understanding, so that we may act together, free from destroying contentions; so that we may be great fabric in which each individual is a vital thread. I want to bring about the greatest service that America can give to the world—the service of an example of a great representative democracy undivided. I want to preserve and foster our United America.

"That is my ambition. That is my opportunity for service to America as I conceive it. It is my faith that America, reaching for new understanding and new strength and new unity of purpose and of aspiration of all her people shall not fail."

Says His Stand Is Consistent.
He declared his stand on the league issue had been consistent from the start and that "the only change of position I've taken is in the imagination of those who do not know what they want to do."

"Do you stand with Senator Johnson or with Mr. Taft?" asked a man in the crowd.
"I'm happy to answer that question," replied the Senator. "I've just been telling you of my belief in representative government. As a candidate for President, I don't ask Senator Johnson to agree with me. That's the thing I'm rebelling against. And I don't ask Mr. Taft to agree with me. But I do think I've made one contribution to America. I've certainly brought Mr. Johnson and Mr. Taft closer together than they ever were in their lives before."

A moment later a negro asked whether Mr. Harding stood for suppression of lynch law, and the nominee replied he believed in equal rights and a law enforcement that "justly and righteously protects every human being under the flag."

LONG DISCUSSES THE LEAGUE IN FIVE SPEECHES IN ST. LOUIS

Disarmament of the nations of the world depends upon entrance of the United States into the League of Nations, Breckinridge Long, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, declared in a speech last night at Duval's Hall. Ninth and Market streets. He made four other speeches later in the evening in other parts of the city.

Although 43 nations now are members of the league, they dare not disarm so long as the United States, outside the league, maintains a great navy and a powerful army, he declared.

"If Harding should be elected President it would be America's message to the world that she will not join the league," Long said. "and it would mean that the world could not proceed with the general program of the league to exert that beneficent influence throughout the world, which it can exert with the United States in it."

"So there rests upon the voters of the United States a dual responsibility. They must decide for the United States and they must decide the fate of the world."

to follow the council's recommendation, yes or no?"

Amid cries from the audience of "throw him out," the Governor insisting that the man be given a hearing, responded:

"Wait a minute. I am going to do this in my own way. If a grave matter arises we are not legally bound to do it. You ask if we are morally bound. If it is a grave matter. We are going to accept a message from God Almighty. We are making a bet on the morality of the world."

The Governor's questioner declared article 10 would sign away American sovereignty and the candidate replied:

"Who signs with us? All the nations that go into the league. Then each one, according to your admission, signs just as much away as the other one signs, and as they are all giving it up, where does it go? Into the air? If we signed away our sovereignty, wouldn't that be in conflict with the Constitution? The Supreme Court would stop it as quickly as they would stop burglary."

League Constitutional.

Gov. Cox then reiterated his statement that an American Bar Association Committee had declared the league constitutional in every respect and asked his questioner if he knew where "his candidate" stood upon the league.

"He isn't so divinely inspired," the Governor's codebater replied, "that he can tell immediately what he is going to do with something in the future."

"No, he is senatorially inspired," Gov. Cox responded.

"He is willing to cross the bridge when he comes to it and solve those questions by a complete diagnosis of the situation at the time," came the reply.

If you were running for the presidency, and Judge Taft said you were for the league and Hiram Johnson said you were against the league, and if you kept quiet, wouldn't you be trying to acquire the presidency under false pretenses?" Gov. Cox asked.

"Senator Harding is either fooling Taft or Johnson, is he not?"

The Governor's questioner made some gesture with his head and the Governor, closing the debate, said:

"I don't blame you for shaking your head. That is what the country is doing."

Much of Gov. Cox's league argument was in religious vein, and he stressed the universal church endorsement which, he said, had been given the league.

Stands on Statements.

Charges of a "conspiracy" in the signature of the senatorial "round robin" also were emphasized by the Governor, who received prolonged cheers when he predicted defeat of Senator Harding and other Republican candidates who were named on the "round robin." As usual, he named Senator Newberry of Michigan and then followed with reference to Senator Harding.

Gov. Cox received a telegram last night from a Philadelphia newspaper asking whether, in view of President Wilson's address yesterday upon the league, the Democratic candidate would stand by his Huntington, W. Va., statement "that the executive will" alone should not control a league agreement. The Governor replied that all of his statements "stood," and that he was "not participating in wiggling and wobbling."

Many Women in Tears.

To his women's audience in Dayton, Ohio, the Governor told of his aid in the woman suffrage fight in Tennessee and repeated that the women won the ballot "in time to save civilization." He also said that women would aid by participating in national politics. Many of the women were moved to tears by the Governor's recital of a mother's sacrifice of her son in the war.

Discussing at night the question of moral force behind the league, Gov. Cox said the local county Sheriff never used his physical force to enforce court decrees, and that for 160 years the Federal Supreme Court had not enforced a decree except by moral influence.

Last Meetings of Campaign.

Spending the night at "Trailsend," his home near Dayton, the Governor will rest today and attend to personal affairs before leaving at 2 o'clock to make an address at Indianapolis. Friday morning he will speak at Youngstown, O., home of E. H. Moore, his personal adviser.

at Havana, O., Friday afternoon, and Akron, O., at night. On next Saturday he will address a woman's audience at Chicago in the morning, take a special train to Gary, Ind., for an afternoon meeting, and return to Chicago for a night address.

The last day's campaigning, next Monday, is left open for other Ohio speeches, with a final night meeting at Toledo.

FACTORS IN EAST WITH BEARING ON VOTE POINTED OUT

Rising Interest in League; Economic Developments; Negroes Strongly Organized.

POLITICIANS AT SEA ON WOMEN'S BALLOT

Spontaneous Applause for Wilson; Heavy Registration May Deprive Some of Vote.

By DAVID LAWRENCE, A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The political situation east of the Mississippi River presents several factors. 1. The heavy registration of women has made it doubtful whether in some states everybody will have a chance to vote in the limited period that the polls are open. On account of the congestion at the polls, especially in states where no provision has been made to handle the crowds, many votes will not be cast at all. 2. The negro vote in northern states is better organized than it ever has been. In some of the border states feeling is not altogether pleasant over the way the negroes have been mobilized by the Republicans and it is not altogether a certainty whether in cases where the Democrats control the election machinery there will be time enough for the negroes to vote, though in certain cities where the Republicans have control just the reverse is apt to be the case and many whites may not get a chance to vote. The race question, unfortunately, enters into the calculation of certain important states.

Effect of Women's Vote. 3. The true effect of the enfranchisement of women throughout the nation is the most uncertain quantity in the whole situation. Politicians profess to know how the women will vote, but they don't. No political leader in all the states that the writer has seen has been able to produce a canvass of the feminine vote which could be considered complete. Time and again the canvass of the masculine vote has been accomplished with such accuracy in advance of the election that the result has varied but little from the official result. Most editors and political leaders agree, however, that the women will merely double the Republican or Democratic vote or increase it by at least 50 per cent. As the husband votes, so votes the wife. That's the theory.

Westerners who have had more experience with woman suffrage for many years uphold that view, yet in Indiana, Kentucky, West Virginia and even Ohio it has been admitted by politicians that perhaps the League of Nations has made more voters independent of party lines than at first expected. In West Virginia, Indiana, Ohio, New York and New Jersey there has been a noticeable revival of interest among men and women in the League of Nations, a wider reading of the covenant than was believed possible on a question that has so often been dismissed by the professional politicians as "dead" or with the statement that the "people are sick and tired of the thing."

Outbursts for Wilson. Fourth. Another remarkable thing is that while the street talk and club talk and smoking car gossip and newspaper talk has constituted an apparent wave of anti-Wilsonism, the casual mention of the name of Woodrow Wilson in meetings held by the Democrats has not been met with silence or a few scattered handclaps, but by spontaneous outbursts of applause. The Democrats themselves have been pleasantly surprised by the demonstrations and don't know whether to interpret it as a feeling of sympathy for the man who has broken down in health in his endeavors to serve the people or whether to regard it as an indication of Democratic strength at the polls.

Fifth. The economic situation has had so many puzzling developments in the last three or four weeks, prices have dropped so materially and unemployment has come so suddenly in many cities that in more than one case are suspiciously expressed that the shut-down has something to do with the off-heard conspiracy of intimidating labor. On the other hand, in the rural districts the fall in the price of wheat and the general decline of livestock prices has stirred up the tariff issue and made friends for the Republican tariff program. The reader himself has probably noticed that Senator Harding has evidently been told of this sentiment, for he has devoted two or three statements to it lately.

Moreover, the rising tide of interest in the League of Nations has been met by the Republicans in the last two weeks by campaign speeches from such friends of the league as Herbert Hoover, William Howard Taft and Elihu Root.

In irreconcilables' camp. The attack has been against article 10, and in the East nobody, including Senator Harding, has sent messages in the last few days to Senators Johnson or Borah telling them they were interpreting the Republican platform correctly. Indeed, the restiveness displayed by William Randolph Hearst, who calls on Gov. Cox to repudiate the league at the same time criticizes Harding "for wiggling and wobbling," is another indication of unrest in the camp of the "irreconcilables" and others who favor the rejection of the treaty and any League of Nations.

With a growing sentiment in favor of the principle of a League of Nations, there is no question that Senator Harding's speech at Des Moines saying he didn't want to clarify obligations, but that he was seeking "rejection," has been construed as meaning rejection of the whole league and not article 10 alone, as his friends insist was his meaning.

However, east of the Mississippi River it is the judgment of this correspondent that even the changing of votes at the eleventh hour to Cox from Harding will not enable the Democrats to carry New York, New Jersey, Illinois or Ohio, though they have admittedly made progress every day since the Des Moines speech and are daily acquiring the votes of large numbers of women.

President Saw the Issue. President Wilson saw the issue of this campaign before anyone else in his party and his judgment has been vindicated in the sense that with it the Democrats have been able to make more progress than with anything else. The big question is whether the Democrats have been able to cover up mistakes on domestic administration by the use of the league issue. Or to put it another way, is the country going to vote on questions of foreign policy to the exclusion of domestic troubles or irritations and restrictions growing out of the war and the reconstruction period? The only place for such independence to be displayed—if it appears at all—is in the West, which showed itself able in 1916 to part company with the rock-ribbed Republican East. Can the West and South win for Cox or is there any other combination partially in the East and partially in the West which would carry him to victory?

Negroes Attempt to Lynch White Man. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 23.—The attempt here yesterday of a mob of negroes to lynch Isadore Cohen, white, after his automobile had run over a negro child, was frustrated by R. H. Green, a negro preacher, who fought off the white man's assailants long enough to let him escape in the car. The child, a girl, whose skull was fractured, cannot recover, hospital officials say.

Can't Cut Up Indiana Dogs. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Every dog has his day—even the friendless pup at the city pound. Dog lovers of Indianapolis have launched an effort to save the homeless canine from the vivisection table of Indiana University School of Medicine. When a representative of the school appeared at the pound and asked for dogs, he was told there were none available for vivisection purposes.

The humane society has been disposing of unclaimed dogs by sending them to the city pound. If the university directors persist in their efforts to obtain the dogs, it was said legal action would be started to prevent them.

Genevieve, Perry, Cape Girardeau, Madison, St. Francois, Washington, Franklin and Audrain.

The candidates both received the endorsement of lawyers of their respective parties, in the poll conducted by the St. Louis Bar Association before the primary. This poll did not include the counties outside St. Louis.

as Lieutenant-Colonel. Removed to Missouri in 1867, and settled at Potosi; served as Circuit Attorney of old Fifteenth Judicial Circuit; United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri from May, 1889, to April, 1894. Elected to Court of Appeals in 1908, the district then consisting of the city and 58 counties. Rendered, in the Barrie case, the first appellate Court decision, holding the United Railways Co. liable for damage judgments against the St. Louis Transit Co. In case of Carradine vs. Ford, he defined the rights of pedestrians in the streets as equal to those of automobile and vehicle drivers. He upheld mechanics' rights in lien cases.

Nominated in August primary by majority of 155 over City Counselor Daines, who was backed by Mayor Kiel and the "Courthouse Ring."
Reynolds Is 79 Years Old.
Judge Reynolds' age, nearly 79 years, and the length of the term for which he seeks election have been cited by his opponents as indicating that a younger man should be elected. As to this, Judge Reynolds says he is in the best of health, and that he has rendered 1050 decisions in the nearly 12 years of his service in the court, an average of 87 a year, whereas the usual average of a Federal Appellate Judge is 35 decisions a year.

Hickman P. Rodgers, Democrat, Native of St. Louis, graduate of Washington University Law School. Was appointed by Gov. Folk as Judge of the Court of General Sessions, which went out of existence after a short time, as the Supreme Court held that the law establishing it was unconstitutional. Democratic nominee for Circuit Judge in 1916. Served in war period as Government appeal agent in enforcement of selective draft law. Two of his sons served in the American army overseas, the third worked in a shipyard.

NEW YORK SUBWAY HAS CARRIED 4,301,000,000 PERSONS Passengers in 16 Years Total Three Times World's Population—Only Seven Killed by Accident.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Since New York's first subway train was run 16 years ago Oct. 27, the Interborough Rapid Transit Co. has carried 4,301,000,000 passengers—approximately three times the total population of the world—Frank Hedley, president and general manager, announces. During that time there have been only seven passengers killed, or one to every 614,400,000 passengers carried, according to Hedley's report, which said "this is the highest safety record in the world."

On the opening day the subway carried 111,881 passengers, compared to more than 2,000,000 now carried daily. The company now has 22 miles of track, compared to 62 miles 16 years ago.

The coroner recorded a verdict of "Death contracted by the use of an anthrax contaminated shaving brush of Japanese origin."

Prince Held in Rifle Deal.
BERLIN, Oct. 28.—Prince Hohenlohe-Langenburg, who, with Prince Joachim Albrecht of Prussia played a leading role in the recent assault on two French officers at the Adlon Hotel, was arrested recently, with two other officers, on a charge of having attempted to gain possession of a large number of rifles left behind in Holland during the German army's retreat on the western front. What! A separate factory just to cut soles?

YES—and that is one more reason why McElwain Shoes give you more for less.

The McElwain organization is so big that it reaches out to three continents for its hides; so big that it owns and operates its own tanneries; so big that each separate part of the shoe is made in a separate, specialized factory.

That means a separate factory just to cut the soles; another to fashion the upper leather; another to make the heels.

In every single operation there is a saving of pennies; and the pennies amount to dollars by the time the shoe reaches you.

Ask your dealer today to show you a pair of McElwain Shoes. You will be surprised at their beauty and style; but the price will surprise you even more.

TWO LARGE RALLIES BEFORE ELECTION

Republican Meeting at Linn's Hall Tomorrow; McAdoo
Will Speak Saturday.

Only two large political meetings remain on the program in St. Louis for the days that remain before the election next Tuesday, though ward and precinct gatherings will be held daily.

The principal Republican effort will be that made in the First Ward tomorrow night at Linn's Hall, 600 North Broadway. Chairman Stratman of the Republican City Committee is the ward Committeeman. He has planned an automobile parade to start from the old Water Tower, Twentieth street and East Grand avenue at 7 p. m. with red fire, bombs and many tin horns. The meeting will start an hour later. Arthur Hyde, gubernatorial nominee, Senator Spencer and a number of candidates will speak.

The Democrats will deliver their final blows from the platform Saturday night at the Odeon, where an address will be made by William G. McAdoo, formerly Secretary of the Treasury and Director-General of the railroads during the war, whose name was before the Democratic convention for the presidential nomination.

McAdoo will speak in Kansas City tomorrow night, at the Fisco shops in Springfield Saturday morning and will arrive here over the Frisco at 7:25 p. m.

Meetings of the two parties arranged for tonight are as follows: Republicans—North St. Louis Turner Hall, Twentieth and Salisbury streets; 4300 St. Ferdinand avenue; Druid's Hall, Ninth and Market streets; Tenth and Biddle streets; Twelfth street between O'Fallon street and Cass avenue.

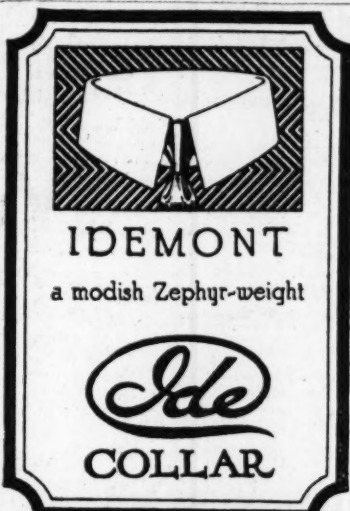

Democrats—Fraternal Hall, Eleventh street and Franklin avenue; Holy Angels' Hall, La Salle street and St. Ange avenue; Cinderella Hall, 2729 Cherokee street; Turner Hall, Robert and Michigan avenues; St. Augustine's Hall, Heben and Liguore streets; Union Theater, Union and Easton avenues Twenty-eighth Ward Democratic women are to meet at 2:30 p. m. today at St. Rose School Hall, Goodfellow and Etzel avenues.

MONEY IN BELLEVILLE STREETS
Everybody was jacking up money on the market square at Belleville for a little while yesterday. Superintendent of Street Cleaning started it by picking up a nickel and a gunny. He told Policeman Herr of his good fortune. The policeman, not to be outdone, picked up a dime. In the midst of the mutual felicitations along came John Gaudin, a market man. He heard what had happened and looked around a bit and picked up a $5 bill. The news spread that Marquet

Square was covered with money and a money hunt was quickly organized but no more was found. It has not been learned who lost the $5.16.

2 MEN IDENTIFIED IN IRELAND HOME HOLDUP

Pine Lawn Resident Says Prisoners Were Among Six Who Blew Safe.

Ward S. Ireland, president of the BlueBird Manufacturing Co., today identified, according to the police, two men they have under arrest as two of six men who on July 24 at 2 a. m. entered his home at 6825 Natural Bridge road, Pine Lawn, under the pretense that they were revenue agents looking for whisky and blew a safe there. Ireland reported that jewelry, cash and securities valued at $12,000 were taken.

The men held are David (Chippy) Robinson, 23 years old, of 4818 Bulwer avenue, and William P. Colbeck, 26, of 932 North Newstead avenue. The police declare that Ireland named Robinson as one of the men who worked on the safe and Colbeck as one of the men who pointed a revolver at him during the robbery. A search of Colbeck's room revealed an internal revenue agent's badge, a revolver and wearing apparel for which identification as stolen property is being sought.

The badge was a gold one with the letters "U. S." in the center, the word "Internal" above in black and "Revenue" below. Ireland said that he looked at it carefully while the robbery was in progress and that he was sure that Colbeck wore it. He said also that during the presence of the men in his house, from time to time, they would say to Colbeck: "What do you want us to do now, sergeant," and that Colbeck would give orders. Ireland added that Robinson and Colbeck were the two men whom he has believed ever since the robbery, he would be able to identify if given the opportunity.

The men have been turned over to county authorities.

MAN FINED $10 FOR FIGHTING

Alleged to Have Struck Another in Row Over Stove.

Marcus Friedman of 2706 Dayton street, dealer in used furniture and stoves, was fined $10 today in Police court for hitting Joseph Schwartz, 1314 North Leffingwell avenue, on the head with a screwdriver.

Friedman had sold a heating stove to Schwartz's brother-in-law, Israel Langbard, 2732 Dickson street, and when it was delivered at the Langbard home last evening, Schwartz criticized it. He said that for one thing the damper was defective. He found other faults, and Friedman became exasperated. Then there was a fight, followed by the arrest of Friedman and Schwartz. Schwartz was discharged.

Meeting of Catholic Women. The Catholic Women's League will hold a nonpartisan political mass meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the

Why Maple Karo has the largest sale of all the different kinds of maple syrups sold

American housewives bought over five million cans last year. Delicious flavor and moderate price the reason

Nothing speaks louder than facts. For those who relish the delicious flavor of real maple, Maple Karo is preferred everywhere.

Maple Karo is not an "imitation flavor." The Corn Products Refining Company, makers of Maple Karo, are the world's largest users of the best maple sugar.

Each year over a thousand tons of the purest maple sugar are used to make Maple Karo.

This sugar comes from the richest maple groves in Vermont and Canada.

There isn't a delicacy that comes to your table that you will enjoy more than the new Maple Karo—on waffles or hot cakes, or as a spread on bread, or crisp, buttered toast.

And the price is remarkably moderate—in fact lower than any other syrup of approaching flavor and quality.

Ask your grocer today for Maple Karo in the Green Can. It is guaranteed to satisfy you—or your money returned.

FIREMEN ORDER AUDIT OF CONVENTION FUNDS

Records Show Union Will Get $7479 From Advertising and Solicitors $12,386.

A committee to investigate the handling of a convention fund raised by the sale of advertising in the program for the firemen's convention held here last month was appointed at a special meeting of the Firemen's Union, held Tuesday, yesterday and today in group sections.
The meeting was presided over by Edward Johnson, vice president of the union. The president, Capt. J.
J. Manion, is treasurer of the convention fund. The members of the committee are: Lieut. J. Toohy, Lieut. G. Slattery, M. J. Mulvey, who is secretary of the union; A. Koeln and Capt. W. McGuire.

Solicitors for the fund were Dr.
L. E. Lehmberg and Henry Hoffmann. They were to make collections and turn the money over to a committee of the union, receiving 49
per cent of all collections under $10-000, 50 per cent of all above that amount, and 20 per cent of contributions direct to the fund.

The investigating committee today issued a signed statement asking that all persons or firms who bought advertising in the program, or made any contribution to the fund mail their canceled checks or receipts to the union at Postoffice box No. 325,
to assist in making an accurate audit. The checks and receipts, it is stated, will be returned within 30 days, or earlier, if requested.

All the records relative to the fund have been turned over to the committee. They show $18,834 for advertising and $765 contributed so far collected, and $222 in outstanding advertising accounts. According to these figures the total receipts for the union, when the $322 is collected would be $7,479.60, and the solicitors' commission would be $12-281.40. The surplus over paying the convention cost, which was about $5400, will go into the union treasury.

EXPRESS MESSENGER SAYS HE STOLE TO AID HIS FAMILY

Frank L. Crawford Tells Police He Was in Debt and Took Packages Left in His Care.

With a salary of $135 a month and a family of six, besides himself, to support, Frank L. Crawford, a messenger for the American Railway Express Co., told the police that he took to stealing packages consigned to his care in order to get money to meet his expenses. He is held for the Federal authorities on a charge of theft from interstate shipments.
He was arrested last night at his home, 227 Hazel avenue, Webster Groves, after it became known to the police that he had sold several articles of clothing at a very low price. He told the police that his wife recently had undergone four operations and his mother two.

Crawford said he went hopelessly into debt, and concluded that the only way out was to steal. The packages which he extracted from those in his care were misdirected ones, he said. He has been employed by the American Railway Express
Co. for 10 years, and has had a run between St. Louis and Monett, Mo.

YOUTH SHOT BY MAN ON BOX CAR

Says Assailant Fired on Him When He Was Walking Along Tracks.

George Jones, 18 years old, of Rock View, Mo., was shot in the hip and seriously injured at 8:39 o'clock last night at Eighth street and the Illinois Central Railroad tracks, East St. Louis, by a man who was riding on a box car.
Jones is at St. Mary's Hospital.
He was in company with his cousin,
Clarence Hadin of West Frankfort, Ill., and the two were walking along the railroad tracks on their way to the latter city, when the shot wounded Jones. They said the man on the box car yelled at them, and then drew a revolver. They ran, and he fired one shot, striking Jones. The police and railroad officials are making an investigation.

WINE PRESS IN CELLAR OF HOME

Charles Gerercl, 43 years old, of 1420 North Thirteenth street, and his wife, Clara, 35, were arrested at their home last night when Lieut. Conley found five barrels and six jugs of wine and a wine press in the cellar of their home.

Conley had been informed that liquor might be found there.
The couple admitted making the wine, police say, claiming they made it for their own use only. They were held for the United States authorities.

REQUIEM MASS FOR MACSWINEY TUESDAY

Services Will Be at New Cathedral—Bells of All Churches to Be Told.

Death notices printed in the St. Louis newspapers today announce that a pontifical mass of requiem for Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, who died Monday in Brixton Prison, London will be solemnized at 10 a. m. next Tuesday (All Souls day) at the New Cathedral, Newstead avenue and Lindell boulevard.

Those in charge of the arrangements have asked that the bells of all St. Louis churches, regardless of creed, be tolled for 15 minutes, beginning at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

The celebrant of the mass will be Monsignor J. J. Tannath, chancellor of the archdiocese. Archbishop Glennon will give the absolution, with the Rev. M. S. Ryan, president of Kenrick Seminary, as assistant priest.

Special Music Program.

The Rev. P. J. O'Rourke will serve as deacon, the Rev. Joseph T. Shields as subdeacon, the Rev. John Lyons as first master of ceremonies, and the Rev. Michael O'Keefe as second master of ceremonies. The Rev. Daniel J. Lavery and P. P. Crane will be deacons of honor to the Archbishop. The Cathedral choir has arranged a special music program under the direction of William T. Diebls. A surpliced choir from Kenrick Seminary will chant before the mass. Many priests and representatives of all the sisterhoods will attend the service.

Plans are under way for a mass meeting in honor of MacSwiney's memory to be held at the Odeon Sunday, Nov. 7.

Procession in East St. Louis.

The Friends of Irish Freedom in East St. Louis are making arrangements for a funeral procession there to be held at 10 a. m. next Sunday. It is planned that a funeral cortege, including a hearse carrying a coffin draped with the new Irish flag, shall go to St. Patrick's Church, where commemorative services will be held. A mass meeting will be held in St. Patrick's Hall, East St. Louis, next Sunday night with Dr. R. Emmett Kane of St. Louis and Daniel McGlynn as the principal speakers.

9-YEAR-OLD BOY TURNED OVER TO THE JUVENILE COURT

Earl Whitney Lester, 9 years old, adopted son of Mrs. Le Grande Stinson of 610 North Third street, Phoenix, Ariz., was turned over to the police last night by Benjamin Brissette of 1643 Sempie avenue and P. R. Holton of 4053 Westminster place, who requested that the boy be placed in charge of the juvenile court for disposition.

Brissette explained that the boy, who was shortly after his birth, was taken from the Bethesda Home, 3640 Vista avenue, by his mother-in-law, who was then Mrs. Evelyn Lester, of Jefferson City. She took care of the boy, when she married Le Grande Stinson, who, Brissette said, objected to keeping the boy.

Mrs. Stinson, who had moved to Phoenix, later sent the boy to her mother, Mrs. W. J. Klinkenbeard of 818 Broadway, Jefferson City, and the latter, being unable to care for him, sent him in care of a Missouri Pacific conductor, to St. Louis, notifying Brissette of the fact.

Brissette and his brother-in-law, Holton, met the boy when he arrived at Union Station last night. They told the police that they were in no position to take care of the boy and asked that he be forwarded to the juvenile court. The boy was taken by the police to the House of Detention.

SWALLOWS POISON BY MISTAKE

Harvey Keefer, 71 years old, of 213 Geyer avenue, was taken to the city hospital suffering from iodine poisoning last night, after he had swallowed some of the poison in mistaking it for other medicine at his home, according to the police. He had bought iodine for toothache and kept it beside other medicine he had been mistaking. His condition was said to be serious.

M'CORMICK SPEAKS AGAINST LEAGUE HERE

Hyde Also Addresses Soldan High School and Other Republican Meetings.

United States Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois and Arthur M. Hyde, Republican gubernatorial candidate, made campaign speeches at the Soldan High School auditorium last night. Senator McCormick, who announced himself as an "irreconcilable," devoted much of his speech to criticism and denunciation of the Wilson administration.

In his discussion of the League of Nations he advanced most of the arguments which have been used by Republican campaigners and asserted that if the United States had been permitted to enter the league it would now be necessary to have American soldiers all parts of the world to protect the interests and territory of other nations.

View of Article Eleven. In reply to a question from the audience Senator McCormick said that under article 11 of the league covenant it might be possible to bring the Irish question before the league, but he asserted that the self-interest of other nations with dependent states would prevent them from voting against Great Britain on that question. He also said that in his opinion article 11 would make it possible for Japan to refer the Japanese-California controversy to a vote of the League of Nations.

The theory of government based on political parties has been broken down in Missouri, Hyde declared in speeches at Soldan High, the Bryan Mullanphy School and at the Twenty-second Ward Republican Club, 4273 Easton avenue.

This break, Hyde said, has come because the party in power no longer has to depend upon service to the people for continued lease of power, charging that the Democrats perpetuate their rule by means of a corrupt senatorial and congressional gerrymander and stolen elections in Kansas City which give them a winning margin in statewide elections.

Answers Democratic Critics.

Hyde, who has been criticised for directing all his fire on Democratic Kansas City and for forgetting Republican St. Louis, in talking of election frauds, said that he gives Gov. Gardner credit for having too much sense to appoint Election Commissioners in Kansas City who will steal elections for the Democrats and one in St. Louis that will steal them for the Republicans. Hyde declared, however, that if elections are being stolen here, they will not be stolen any more, as he intends to clean them up after Jan. 1.

Mrs. Hyde and their 16-year-old daughter accompanied Hyde last night and was introduced to the crowd at the Bryan Mullanphy School where about 500 persons attended the meeting. Senator Spencer, Congressman Newton, Lee Merriweather, George Hackmann, nominee for re-election as State Auditor, and Mrs. Mary Hight of Chicago, also spoke. A number of local candidates were introduced.

2000 COLORADO COAL MINERS ARE AFFECTED BY STRIKE ORDER

By the Associated Press. DENVER, Colo., Oct. 28.—Two hundred Colorado Rangers under Col. Patrick J. Hamrock are expected to take charge in the Northern Colorado coal fields, where a strike of miners was called, effective at midnight last night.

The troops were given orders yesterday by Gov. Shoup and remained under arms last night at Golden on the State rifle range.

Gov. Shoup's order was issued in a statement in which he characterized the strike as illegal and declared law and order would be maintained.

Two thousand miners, according to officials of the union, are affected by the strike order. Several properties which are operating under unexpired contracts are also affected. The miners demand a wage adjustment and working agreement.

ONE LITTLE PIMPLE SPOILS A BEAUTIFUL FACE

No matter how perfect the features, how radiant the complexion, just one little pimple spoils the face. Not always can these little facial blemishes be prevented, but they may be caused by the too frequent use of irritating soaps, powders, rougers or possibly impure blood.

Every one should be taken to preserve the skin, especially the face, neck, arms and hands. Only the purest and most sterilized toilet soap should be used to cleanse the skin, and when a face powder must be employed, use the highest quality should be selected.

When a simple pimple comes out on your face, you don't have to remain indoors or try to hide it. Simply touch the little spot with BLACK and WHITE Ointment and it will vanish almost immediately. It is a necessary toilet requisite for removing other blemishes, such as freckles, blotchy, yellow skin. The way it cleans the skin is by removing the dirt and oil that clog the pores.

BLACK and WHITE Soap should always be used with the ointment. Both are sold and distributed by all good drug stores at 25c each a package, or the combination set will cost but one set of 50c.

A package of BLACK and WHITE Ointment Literature and BLACK and WHITE Soap and Cream Book sent free if you will clip and mail this advertisement to: BLACK and WHITE, Box 1507, Memphis, Tenn.

ANNIVERSARY OF BIRTH OF U. S. NAVY TO BE CELEBRATED

Sons of American Revolution to Unveil Tablet on John Paul Jones' Statue Saturday.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Gordon Woodbury will be the principal speaker Saturday afternoon when Sons of the American Revolution unveil a bronze tablet on the John Paul Jones statue in Potomac Park here in commemoration of the birth of the United States Navy.

It was on Oct. 30, 1775, that the Continental Congress, composed of representatives of the "12 United Colonies," directed the purchase of two small naval ships, carrying 30 and 36 guns, respectively. They were the nucleus of the present navy.

Other speakers will be James B. Preston of Baltimore, president general of the Sons of the American Revolution, and Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester, United States Navy, retired. Detachments of sailors and marines will participate.

MULTIPLICITY OF TROUBLES HINDER ITALIAN STEAMSHIP

Fire, Floating Mines, Labor Agitators, Stowaways and Severe Storm Interfere With Trip.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Hardships at sea that made the trip of the "Ancient Mariner" seem comparatively comfortable, were told by the skipper of the Italian steamer Presidente Wilson and his passengers who arrived yesterday from Trieste and Naples.

Soon after leaving Trieste a wireless warning that a field of floating mines had broken loose caused a wide detour; then fire broke out in the forward room as Naples was reached; in the harbor labor agitators harangued the crew to go on strike, and at sea the next day two dozen stowaways were discovered, so the ship put back to Naples to disembark them. One attempted suicide by jumping overboard and was arrested.

After leaving land again the ship came upon seven Moors exhausted in a small open boat. They said a severe storm washed away their sails and cargo of eggs when en route from Gibraltar to Algiers. A severe storm, amounting almost to a typhoon, which lashed waves over the entire liner was encountered off Gibraltar. For six days she pushed against the head winds, which the log of the trip described as the most severe the ship ever encountered.

$200,000 Damage in Hotel Fire.

By the Associated Press.
NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 28.—Fire of undetermined origin which last night destroyed the Nansemond Hotel at Ocean View, near here, caused a loss of $200,000, it was estimated today. The hotel was undergoing extensive repairs and had not been occupied since Oct. 1.

BILLIARD BALL BREAKS WINDOW

Police Raid Club Opposite Restaurant and Arrest Five Men.

Police raided the Walters' Club, 708 1/2 Pine street, arresting five men at 6 o'clock last night, after a billiard ball had been thrown through a plate glass window of the Gem Restaurant, 710 Pine street, on the opposite side of the street from the club.

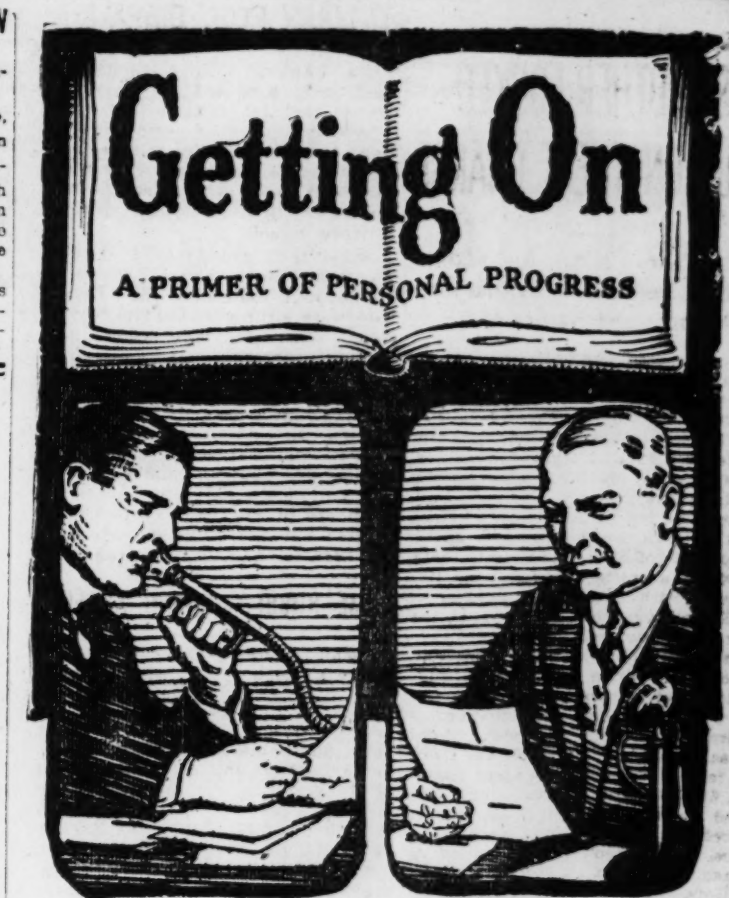

The restaurant, the police say, is one of those being picketed by striking waiters. The damage to the window was about $500.

OUR own opinion is that annual repair costs on the Hupmobile are less than those of any other car in the world.

It is also one of the very few cars—out of several hundred—so noted for fine performance and low-cost over a long life that it always commands a high price when re-sold.

These are the qualities which make the Hupmobile worth what it costs, and without which no motor car is ever worth what it costs.

HAS BROTHER LOCKED UP ON THEFT CHARGE

Man Takes Him to Station When He Tells of Burglary at Laundry and Names Aids.

John Gross of 7520 Virginia avenue took his brother, Andrew Gross, 44 years old, to the Carondelet Police Station last night and had him locked up on a charge of burglary. Later, as the result of a confession made by the prisoner, the police arrested Charles H. Joachens, 26, who said he had no home, and Jacob Dippel, 26, of St. Louis County, both of whom admitted having been implicated with Gross in a burglary. "My conscience has troubled me ever since I committed the act," Andrew Gross told the Desk Sergeant, "and today when my brother suggested that I surrender to the police I gladly accepted the chance."

Gross took policemen to Broadway and Chestnut street, where he pointed out Joachens and Dippel, who were sitting on the Courthouse steps. The latter two readily submitted to arrest.

HOME ROBBED DURING ABSENCE

Woman Believes Man Who Telephoned Daily Committed Theft. Mrs. E. P. Sparwasser of 1121 Lawn avenue, in reporting the theft from her home in her absence yesterday afternoon of jewelry and clothing, which she valued at $700, told the police she suspected a man who had been telephoning to her house daily for the last two weeks. The man always asked for "Charlie," and when told by Mrs. Spar-wasser that no such person lived there, would say that the operator had given him the wrong number. Mrs. Sparwasser believes the man was at home, and then ransacked the house.

The Voice of France

Straddling, dodging, evading, Senator Harding, cornered at last, faces the tidal wave for the League of Nations. Realizing this, he now In Sheer Desperation says:

The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow,

Baldridge in the Stars and Stripes

"France has sent her spokesman to me, informally, asking America in its new realization of the situation to lead the way for an Association of Nations."... Greencastle, Ind., Speech, October 15th.

On being brought to account for this amazing statement, he would not name this "spokesman representing France."

The French Embassy at Washington has officially informed the State Department of the United States that the French Government has not consulted Senator Harding, either formally or informally.

Senator Harding stands convicted at least of gross misrepresentation. But there is a

PASTORS ASK NEGROES TO VOTE AGAINST DYER

Circulars Soliciting Support for Negro Candidate Appeal
for Race Expression.

Negroes of the Twelfth (St. Louis)
Congressional District are receiving copies of a four-page leaflet signed by the pastors of four negro churches, who call upon them to scratch Congressman L. C. Dyer, Republican nominee for re-election, and vote for Robert N. Owens, negro, nominated against Dyer by the Farmer-Workers party.

The circular makes no personal attack upon Congressman Dyer, but bases its appeal largely upon the plea for race expression. It charges that "politically we are as much disfranchised by Republican bosses and machine politicians in St. Louis as the negroes are in Mississippi."

The circular is signed by George
E. Stevens, Central Baptist Church;
E. H. Hamilton, Congregational Church; J. L. Canton, Mt. Olive Baptist Church; B. F. Abbott, Union Methodist Church; J. K. Parker, Pleasant Green Baptist Church;
William L. Perry, Antioch Baptist Church; and W. W. Goff, Asbury M.
E. Church.

Fight Against "Slaterism."
"This is a stroke for political freedom; an effort to rid ourselves
of Slaterism," the circular says.
Frank M. Slater, white, is the Republican City Committeeman from the Seventeenth Ward, whom negroes of the ward declare was "counted in" over Ernest Patillo, negro.

Election of Owens is urged, "because there are more than 11,000,000
negroes in our Government with no representative of their race in Congress. Equal and proportionate representation in Congress according to the population would give the negro 16 Congressmen and eight Senators.

"Because the negroes in the Twelfth Congressional District have the only opportunity the race has to elect a Congressman. Here we have a majority of $300 and are enfranchised."

"Last Chance to Elect Negro."
The negroes are warned that this may be their last chance to elect a Congressman from that district as
"two years from now the district may be gerrymandered and so cut up as to scatter our vote."

They are reminded of "the theft of
your citizenship in the primary election of Aug. 3 last," and that "we have been pillaged and robbed in every election, primary, special and
regular, for many years in St. Louis.
In response to our appeal and protest
for relief we were told by Mayor

WOMEN TO COLLECT "THANK OFFERINGS" FOR SHAW MEMORIAL

Workers to Solicit Gifts at Polling Places—$500,000 Sought for School Endowments.

Contributions will be solicited at St. Louis polling places Tuesday for the Anna Howard Shaw Memorial Fund. Women will stand as sentinels 100 feet from the polling places, to receive gifts to this fund. Such gifts, when made by women who are enjoying the privilege of voting for the first time, will be termed "thank offerings."

Mrs. George Gellhorn is chairman of the fund movement for Missouri,
and Mrs. Eugene Hecker is chairman of the collection work in St. Louis.
The women standing near polling places will display a placard with the words, "Anna Howard Shaw Gave Her Best—Give What Your Heart Dictates."

Dr. Shaw was the leader of the suffrage forces from the time of the retirement of Susan B. Anthony until the day of her own death, a few months before the suffrage amendment was ratified. It is planned to raise a fund of $500,000 to perpetuate her memory. Instead of being spent for a statue of marble or brass, the memorial is to be divided into two equal parts—half to endow
a foundation in Political Science at Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pa., the other half to endow a foundation
in Preventive Medicine at the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania.

Loses Sight After Beating.
SAN FRANCISCO.—Friends of years were separated by the litigation's
table when the $25,000 damage suit started by Alexander Horvath against Paul Muller came to trial.
Horvath maintains he was so beaten up by Muller Feb. 24, 1918, that he went blind. Muller states the beating Horvath received was from another, and adds that Horvath's eyesight has always been defective.

Deer Dig Up Potatoes.
OTTISVILLE, N. Y.—Game authorities have been notified that deer
are destroying crops on the country place of Chester W. Chapin at Lebanon Lake, a few miles from Otis-ville. Tons of vegetables have been destroyed. It is said the deer can dig a hill of potatoes almost as quickly as a farmhand.

Kiel that he could not deliver us
from our political slavery."

The negroes are advised to vote
the Republican ticket straight except for Dyer, who they are urged to scratch and write in the name of Owers, "because we are down on Mr.
Dyer." No. But Mr. Owens being one of us can better represent us and it is in our power to elect him."

They are reminded of "the theft of
your citizenship in the primary election of Aug. 3 last," and that "we have been pillaged and robbed in
every election, primary, special and
regular, for many years in St. Louis.
In response to our appeal and protest

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY
By James J. Montague.

PASH.
A laggard in love, since a callow kid,
Unversed in the way to woo,
I always admired the guys who did
The deeds that I wasn't do.
I envied their easy and careless mien
And their swaggering snap and dash,
And that's the reason I still am keen
For the films that are full of pash.

When a fellow meets up with a haughty miss
He has never seen till now,
And impresses an unexpected kine
On her pale and powdery brow,
And I see a look that is softly glad
On the face of the lovely dame,
I think of the fun that I might have had
If I only had known the game.

When a chap like me, who is woman-shy
Is courting a village queen,
And another hands her the "Hey there!" eye
(As they do on the movie screen)
Though I ought to be stirred with a deep disgust
I would give all my boarded pelf
If only, in youth, I had had the crust
To do the same thing myself.

At one fair lady I used to glance
With a fond and yearning sigh,
But before I dared to beg for a dance
She was off with some other guy.
Yet still I love in these films of pash
To see how the trick is done,
And to think, if I only had the dash,
Of the janes that I might have won.
